

1. Case Constructions—uses of the nominative case, the possessive case, the objective case, nouns in apposition, other forms of nouns.

2. Pronoun Constructions—personal pronouns; compound personals; demonstratives, simple demonstratives, demonstratives of the third person, uses of it; interrogative pronouns, uses of the interrogatives; conjunctive pronouns, uses of the conjunctive pronouns, other words used as conjunctive pronouns; indefinite pronouns; reciprocal pronoun phrases.

3. The Adjective—descriptive and limiting adjectives, constructions of the adjective; the articles, uses of the articles; other forms of adjectives.

4. The Adverb—constructions of the adverb, adverbs and adjectives, position of adverbs, comparison of adverbs, other forms of adverbs.

5. The Preposition—constructions of prepositions, uses of the prepositions.

6. The Conjunction.

NOTE.—Exercises in analysis and parsing, which must begin as soon as the pupils have learned to distinguish the logical divisions of the simple sentence, should continue as a deductive exercise throughout the Course, and should develop co-ordinately with the pupils' mastery of the principles of grammar.