

CONTENTS.

commodities. People in Virginia. White and black. 197

CHAP. XVI. Attempts to settle Virginia, three unsuccessful. Settled at last by lord Delawar. 201

CHAP. XVII. Virginia holds out against Cromwell, and is reduced. Bacon's rebellion. Its causes. Bacon dies. Peace restored. 206

CHAP. XVIII. Maryland. The time of settling it. Grant to lord Baltimore. Attempts of king James to deprive him of his jurisdiction. He is deprived of it on the revolution. He is restored. Capital of Maryland. Its trade and inhabitants. 210

CHAP. XIX. Attempts of the French to settle Carolina. They are beat off by the Spaniards. 216

CHAP. XX. Carolina is settled by the English. Its constitution. The lords proprietors resign their charter. Made a royal government, and divided into two provinces. 219

CHAP. XXI. Situation, climate, etc. of Carolina. Its animal and vegetable productions. 223

CHAP. XXII. The commodities of Carolina for export. Rice, indigo, pitch and tar. Process in raising and manufacturing these commodities. 229

CHAP. XXIII. North Carolina, some account of its settlement. Bad state of that province. Is considerably improved. Chief town. 237

CHAP. XXIV. An account of Charles-town. Port-Royal. The trade of Carolina. Its vast increase. Articles not sufficiently attended to there. 239

CHAP. XXV. Settlement of Georgia. Reasons for it. The plan of the settlement defective. Attempts to remedy it. 245