

FRIDAY

1st of June, '80

lands and premises, that is to say :-

Seven in the fifth Concession, north of Con-p of Dunwich, in the County of Elgin,

Two Hundred Acres, More or Less cleared and in a good state of cultivation, umber. On the premises is a frame house, one and one-half story's high, uilt within five years.

one Mile from Dutton Station, on the Southern Railway.

for sale in one parcel, subject to a reserved bidding and subject also to
of the Crops now in the ground.

urn at the time of sale, and the balance to be paid into Court within one ons to be the standing conditions of the Court of Chancery. Further

ROBYN, KEW & BETTS,

y, 1880.

Signed.

of the City of London, Solicitors,

J. SHANLY,

Master in Chancery, at London.

Herald Print.