

- onds motion to urge New Hampshire to send delegates, 190; on committee on representation in Senate, 205; thinks small States have been treated badly, 211; insists on equal vote of States in Senate, 221; opposes numbers and wealth as basis of representation, 225; favors adjournment, 262; proposes election of executive by electors, 285.
- Peace, power of, discussed, 419.
- Pennsylvania, opposes two branches of national legislature, 31.
- Pensioners, disqualification rejected, 331.
- Pierce, William, Ga., attends, 31; favors election of one branch of legislature by the people, 66; moves that wages of members of legislature be paid from national treasury, 93; passed, 93; moves three years for Senate term, 96; thinks State distinctions must be sacrificed, 187.
- Pinckney, Charles, S. C., attends, 17; on powers of executive, 39; proposes seven years' term for executive, 40; favors single executive, 37, 48; thinks executive may consult heads of departments in revisionary power, 68; favors election of executive by legislature, 268; thinks executive should not be impeachable, 290, 291; thinks powers of executive should be circumscribed, 293; proposes executive be ineligible for continuous reelection, 321; opposes executive council, 423; moves President be elected by majority vote, 462; thinks Senate will elect President, 510; objects to eventual election of President by Senate, 514; seconds motion that two-thirds of Senate be present when voting for President, 523; moves to strike out nomination to Senate by State legislatures, 55; objects to powers of national legislature to cases where State legislatures are incompetent, 36; proposes first branch of national legislature be elected by State legislatures, 62; wants proportional representation in Senate, 74; moves negative of national legislature on State laws, 75; moves States be divided into classes as basis for representation, 79; seconds motion for ratio of representation to be in proportion to all free inhabitants and three-fifths others, 88; passed, 88; moves elimination of clause prohibiting reelection into first branch for number of years, 94; agreed to, 94; opposes elections to legislature by State legislatures, 142; favors four years for Senate, 166; opposes equal votes in Senate, 201; thinks numbers best basis for representation, 215; thinks Congress has no right to admit new States, 215; favors equality of blacks in representation, 245; proposes proportional representation in Senate, 253; favors negative on State laws by legislature, 266; seconds motion of qualifications for legislature, 327; moves increase in representation of South Carolina, 358; defends slave representation, 361; approves fourteen years' citizenship for members of Senate, 367; thinks States should name time of elections to legislature, 371; thinks property qualification for legislature should be fixed, 373; opposes ineligibility of members of legislature to offices, 395, 399, 504, 506; moves postponement of question of eligibility of members of legislature, 401; opposes war power for legislature, 418; favors power in Senate, 418; rejected, 419; moves power to fix seat of government, establish seminaries, charters, patents, copyrights, inventions, 420; payment of debt, public credit, letters of mark, stages, 421; favors power over militia, 426; moves power in legislature to negative State laws, 456; moves legislature judge privileges of members, 511; opposes Senate as court of impeachment, 536; opposes three-fourths vote to set aside President's negative, 556; opposes appointment of Treasurer by legislature, 562; would increase representation of North Carolina, 568; opposes appointment of judiciary by legislature, 58; opposes revisionary power in judiciary, 68; moves judges of national judiciary be appointed by legislature, 97; withdrawn, 97; wishes judges appointed by Senate, 301; opposes judiciary in revisionary power, 406; to require opinions of judges, to preserve writ of habeas corpus, 427; would preserve habeas corpus, 477; insists on jury trial in civil cases, 572; thinks originating money bills no concession, 217; opposes money bills in first branch of legislature, 383; insists on slave trade, 443; defends slavery, 444;