Our variety of these Fancy Suits for the little fellows contains many novelties in materials and trimmings.

There are cloth suits and washable suits. In either kind, however, prices are low-as low as anyone who wants really good clothes need hope to pay. We do not make the "cheap" sorts that serve only to sell and do not hold together.

> Sailor Suits start at $1.50, Brownie Suits at $1.75, and every 25 cents more marked on a suit gives extra value in cloth and trimmings. The best suits are $5.00; a few very special ones at $6.00.

> For the Boys, age 10 to 16, prices start at $2.50—little enough for a reliable suit—one that is made for service—and rise by 50c stages to $7.00 and $8.00. There are some specially fine goods at $4.00,

THE DYKE CURE FOR DRINKING.

Sure Cure-Free Consultation

All Day Long.

The cause of nearly every toothache is neglect, but when a tooth is aching it will not interest you to talk of cause. In looking for sudden and mighty relief, however, do not go so hastily as to lose the tooth if a little more care may yet save it. You will surely need the tooth in later years, if dental velopment of one faculty to the loss of the others.

Rev. Elmore Harris conducted a Bible reading on "Fower For Service." Spiritual power, he said, gave the greatest power for service, and a thorough knowledge of the Scriptures was essential to the acquiring of this spiritual power.

Harold E. Copp closed the afternoon session with an address on "Redeeming the Time," pointing out the importance of employing every minute to some advantage.

A Banquet Given.

During the interim between the afternoon and evening meetings the officers and delegates were banqueted in the schoolroom of the church, where the ladies of Collegestreet Church and others had provided daintily spread tables.

Intelligent Work.

Rev. C. A. Eaton 'spoke upon "Intelligent Christianity." There was, he said, no other kind of Christianity except that which was intelligent. It began in the individual and ended in the society. After paying a tribute to some of the labor leaders, he said he blushed with shame for the kid-gloved and fashionable church members who were continually asking themselves, "Can we dance? Can we play cards?" etc., instead of looking about them as intelligent Christians and doing something to help the seething masses of humanity about them.

During the same period workers' conferences were held under the directions of S. J. Duncan-Clarke, R. D. Ecklin and P. C. McGregor.

Officers Elected.

The evening session opened with a praise service, led by Harry L. Stark, after which the following officers were elected: President, H L Stark, Toronto; Vice-Presidents, H E Copp, Hamilton; W Gates, Montreal, and L McNeil, Paisley; Corresponding Secretary, S L Squire, Waterloo; Treasurer, C J Cameron, Vankleek Hill.

Resolutions were passed favoring the strict observance of the Lord's Day and expessing disapproval of the Legislature and others in their efforts to permit secular work on that day; thanking the associational unions for the work done and exhorting them to further efforts; endorsing the educational feature of the B.Y.P.U., and urging all societies to take up the same work, and censuring the Dominion Government for not taking action on the mandace of the people as it was expressed in the recent plebiscite vote.

What Dan Godfrey doesn't know of music and musical instruments is hardly worth knowing. He has said of the famous plano, made by the old firm of Heintzman & Co.: "Your concert grand has a fine tone quality, being very full and powerful. The singing quality specially in the treble part is beautiful and the instrument is well balanced throughout the whole scale. Your uprights are beautifully toned instruments. I was specially charmed with them. I am not surprised at the success you have made with your instruments in England."
