WHAT DOES ALDERMAN DUNN KNOW? IS THE QUESTION HAMILTON ASKS

It is Alleged That the City Was Cheated Out of Many Loads of Coal—Challenged to Fight, He Agreed and Lost His $25 Overcoat.

TO-DAY IN HAMILTON.

Council, 10 a.m. Mand at Thistle Inn, 2 p.m. Professor Alexander's lecture on "Evolution at Normal College," at 3.45 p.m.

Hamilton Gun Club shoot, 2 p.m. Wholesalers' Hockey League matches at Thistle Inn, 8 p.m. Women's Art Exhibition, James-street.

"King of the Opium Ring," at the Grand Opera House, 8.15 p.m. Star Theatre, burlesque show, 8.15 p.m.

Hamilton, Jan. 31.—It is said that Ald. Dunn, watch dog of the city treasury, has made some discoveries, which he will not reveal to the press. The first intimation of them was when he asked that the coal account for December be not passed for payment by the City Council in view of "irregularities." Since that time he has been doing some investigating, and an effort to make another civic scandal is being made. At a secret meeting of the Finance Committee it was decided to ask the County Judge to conduct an investigation under oath, such as he held in the House of Refuge some cases.

Alleged Cheating.

It is alleged that the way the city was cheated was that three or four wagon loads of coal were taken to city institutions with the weight sale tickets. The person in charge would load at them and sign for the delivery of them. Then the coal would be taken away, and everything our guarantee means that our work is the best—has to be Artificially Plated... 7.00 and 8.00.

REAL ESTATE INTELLIGENCE

Healthy Character of the Present Movement in City Property—No Speculative Feature About It and No Mortgages—People Buying for Their Own Personal Use—Leading Stock-Broker Goes Into Real Estate—Big List of Building Permits for the Month.

As an indication of the present development of interest in real estate matters it may be mentioned that a well-known realtor in the Toronto Stock Exchange this week sold his lot for $10,000 in order to devote his attention to the business of estate broker. It can be no longer doubted that a healthy development in Toronto real estate is under way. A number of transactions are reported from week to week and they are mostly cash deals. People are buying house properties and vacant lots for their own occupation. The loan companies are not figuring in these transactions, and the mortgage market is practically absent. In its forthcoming annual report a leading local company will state that the immediate use and occupation of the purchaser. Few properties have been purchased through the city for either residential or business purposes.

Announcement for February

Our workrooms are still in full blast, turning out garments for the late winter trade. Our recent purchases of skins have been so heavy that we have deemed it necessary to proceed with another Reduction Sale during the month of February in order to lighten this stock. We are to-day preparing plans and prices for this sale, and on Monday we will be ready with our interesting announcement. If low prices for good goods will induce you to buy, then this sale will be successful.

Remember, everything is new—everything good.

This is the last day of our Stock-taking Sale. Store open until 10 o'clock to-night.

PATENT IS VOID

Case of Kemp v. Chown Decided in Defendant's Favor.

Ottawa, Jan. 31.—Mr. Justice Bur-bridge today delivered judgment in the case of Kemp v. Chown, a patent case heard in the Toronto patent court of Kemp v. Chown. The subject of the patent was a feature of lantern construction, by which the globes or shades may be lifted vertically for the purpose of lighting. Judge Burbridge held that the patent was void in invention, and judgment was given in favor of the defendants, who had been prosecuted in the county by the plaintiff, William A. Kemp, for alleged infringement of his patent.
