

Sweat Shop Shoes

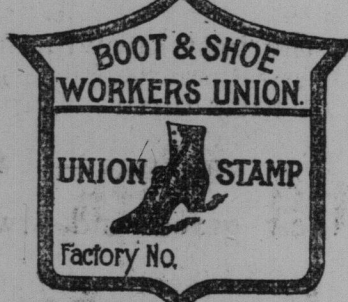

MEAN STARVATION FOR THE WORKER AND CONTAGION FOR THE WEARER

Women! Will you buy sweat shop shoes, and so encourage grasping employers, paying a starvation wage, and not only keeping the worker in crowded, unsanitary, disease-breeding surroundings, but spreading contagion through their products? Sweat shops are dangerous—dangerous to the health of the buyer, and equally dangerous to the wage of the skilled worker, which is lowered by the unfair competition of unskilled workers. Sweat shop shoes are poorly made, and yet cost as much as well-made shoes.

This Stamp

Means Good Pay for the worker, and encouragement for the liberal manufacturer. The Union Stamp on shoes is an assurance of Quality, Style and Fine Workmanship, in the highest degree. Women's, Misses' and Children's shoes bearing the Union Stamp are right in every respect.

On Women's Shoes

Means Light, Clean Shoe Factories, Sanitary Surroundings, and shoes entirely free from the danger of contagion from disease-infected sweat shop products. The Union Stamp on shoes means the Only Shoes which are in every way fit for the wear of women and children.

EXPERT FOR DEFENCE ADMITS A SIMILARITY

Prof. McKay Thinks Some Crosses on Different Ballots May Be of Same Hand.

The Cahoon-Kerr case was continued yesterday afternoon by Judge Winchester in the sessions. The sitting wound up with the experts on handwriting trying to find out on which points they failed to agree. Mr. Staunton was there for the crown, and Prof. J. B. McKay for the defence. They talked and measured angles and hooks on crosses until adjournment. In all there were 58 witnesses examined. These were all voters. Out of this lot only five had voted for Richardson. These five gave him a total of nine votes. Crown Attorney Drayton ran out of witnesses, about 3:30 o'clock. Mr. Robinson consented to place in the box his expert witness for the defence. This was Professor J. B. McKay. The professor stated that he was the supervisor of writing for the public school board. His experience in comparing and examining crosses had been very limited. There might be a similarity in crosses, but he would not swear they were made by the same hand. He thought a number of the crosses on different ballots looked as if they had been marked by the same person.

In cross-examination by Mr. Drayton Professor McKay admitted that he had had no previous experience in examining crosses. The sitting will resume at nine this morning. The crown has six more witnesses, and Mr. Robinson will call ten. It is expected a verdict will be brought in by 5 o'clock.

FOUR FREIGHT CARS WRECKED.

Smash Up in G.T.R. Yards Near Tecumseh-St. Yesterday. There was something of a smash up in the Grand Trunk yards a little to the west of Tecumseh-street at about 11:50 yesterday. Just who was responsible no one appears to know, but the matter will be officially investigated. Six G.T.R. freight cars were standing on the track when the Hamilton freight train, with two engines hauling it, came along. There is a curve not far from the spot, and the cars were not perceived in time to slow up. There was something of a down grade at this point, and the result was an accident which spectators describe as terrific. The end freight car was lifted high into the air and converted into matchwood, while the next three in order were hurled from the tracks and badly demolished. In two cases the body of the car being wrenched clear of the trucks. The other two cars remained on the trucks. The foremost engine, No. 118, had her smokestack torn away, otherwise no serious damage was sustained. No one was injured. Auxiliary No. 5916 worked all afternoon clearing up the debris.

Popular and Educational.

Will be a trip this summer to the great world's fair at St. Louis. No young man or woman or any business man or woman should afford to miss this fifty million dollar exposition. The Grand Trunk will be the popular route and tickets allow stopover at points in Canada and at Detroit and Chicago. $19.25 round trip from Toronto, good 15 days, or $25.00 for 30 days.
