KITCHENER MEETS YPRES IN LAST OF ROUND TONIGHT

STANDING. For. Against.
Winnipeg 3 2
Kitchener 2 3

TORONTO, March 13.—With a one-goal lead to overcome Kitchener meets the Winnipeg Ypres in the second and last game in the Allan cup finals at the Arena Gardens tonight. Both teams are in the best condition possible. The Ypres, H. A. champs are not the least bit worried about that one-goal lead, and figure on triumphing the "Wipers" tomorrow night.

Just how much the one-goal lead is going to matter should not worry the fans. The general consensus of opinion among Toronto sportsmen is that a whole lot depends on the condition of the ice. On Monday night the ice was sticky and greatly hindered Kitchener's speed. The sticky surface of the ice prevented anything like real team play or combination. Stick-handling was off-set, too. If the ice is soft there appears to be little doubt but what the trophy will take another trip to the west, but if the ice is hard and conditions come up to the mark it is not easy to say just what will happen. It is hard to judge correctly the ability of the Ypres on hard ice. Kitchener is the favorite under these circumstances.

Every fan who has followed the Kitchener appreciation during the season must admit that they are first and foremost a hard-ice team. During the season there was absolutely no holding them when the slippery was solid, but when the weather was mild they were considerably slowed up all the way around.

Commenting on the chances of the O. H. A. defenders holding the silverware, the Mail and Empire says: "The Ypres may have a margin of speed as an all-round aggregation, but Kitchener and Parkes can skate with any of them, and as for stick-handling, they outclass any of the western team. The issue then resolves itself as to whether they did so Monday night, aided by the sticky surface, but on hard ice one has a hunch that the system will not be nearly so effective, while the Winnipeg defence, which looked so good, will not find the going nearly as easy with Kitchener's stick men crashing in on them with their trick plays. This last contention is corroborated, it is believed, in that on the two occasions in the first game that Kitchener got away and showed anything like their usual style of play, they made the Ypres defence look very bad and Winkler an easy mark."

VANCOUVER TO MEET TORONTOS IN FINALS FOR THE STANLEY CUP

Seattle, Wash., March 14.—The Vancouver "Millennials" are monarchs of western hockey. While the greatest crowd that has witnessed a sporting event here in many a season cheered the efforts of the many teams, the Seattle Metropolitans, who are the champions of the invaders and lost to Frank Patrick's skaters by the narrow margin of one goal, are the champions of the west.

Last night's struggle, the climax of the hockey season, will go down in puck annals as the fiercest ice battle in coast hockey.

Vancouver will leave tonight for Toronto, where they will engage the Toronto Maple Leafs in the Stanley cup final. While all broken up over their failure to win another championship for Seattle, the Metropolitans have credit for playing a wonderful game.

Summary:
First Period—No score. No subs.
Penalties—Bills, three minutes.
Second Period—Vancouver, Stanley from MacKay, 11:50.
No penalties; no subs.
Third Period—No score. No subs.

HILLER COMPELLED TO LAY OFF TONIGHT WITH INJURED ANKLE

Kitchener Star Suffering From Blow Received Tuesday Night.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Toronto, March 14.—It certainly looks as if the Allan cup will go west with the Ypres team of Winnipeg, the western champions. Not only do they go into the final contest tonight with a one goal lead and logic favorites, but George Hiller, one of Kitchener's brilliant forwards, by many rated the best man on the team, will not play tonight. He is on crutches today with a small bone in his ankle broken, and of course cannot play. His injury is the result of a clip from the stick of Crowman, the giant Ypres defence player, in the last 30 seconds play on Tuesday night.

BLUE SHIRTS CHAMPIONS NATIONAL HOCKEY LEAGUE

MONTREAL, March 13.—Toronto won the championship of the National Hockey League and the right to play the Pacific Coast League champions for the Stanley cup tonight, when the Canadians failed to wipe out the four-goal lead which the Queen City team secured on their own ice in the first of the home-and-home games Monday night. The Frenchmen played an individual game for the most part. Toronto never forgot the lead they enjoyed, and whenever in real danger dropped into a defensive, which easily and successfully checkedmate the one-man efforts of the Frenchmen.

Cameron and Randall of the Toronto team were marked men, but knowing this they played a consistent game, and they refused to dislocate the machinery of their team by retaliation, but after a short absence from the ice returned to play for the remainder of the evening. Cameron was virtually assured for his team. For the Canadians, brilliant work was done by Lalonde and Hall, though much of it went for naught, owing to the cleverness of the Toronto defence.

The officials always kept a tight grip on the game and hopped in the bud every outburst of roughness on the part of the Canadians.

Frenchmen Favorites.
The Toronto players were received with loud huzzas when they jumped on the ice from their warming up. The crowd was out-and-out Canadian, and gave the French team a great reception when they appeared for their preliminary practice.

Wide-Open at Start.
Both teams hit up a tremendous pace at the start-off, and a series of spectacular rushes were indulged in, both teams pressing in on the goal-tenders alternately. Hall was the first casualty, being accidentally poked on the nose with a stick. The pace began to warm up the players, and rough work put on the ice from the general bench. Pitre and Randall on the general bench. Corbeau soon followed for hitting Meeking, who had been taking Randall's place. Corbeau, who had worked against Pitre, was benched for hooking Cameron. Crawford relieved an awkward situation by a fine run up the ice. Veziina, Malone repeated the performance for the Canadians, but shot wide around Holmes, and McDonald beat him with a short shot. The crowd yelled for several minutes.

Shirts Work Hard.
Toronto made a great effort at this point, and took the attack away from the Frenchmen. Lalonde was benched for hooking Meeking. The Canadians pushed the puck into the net, but the spell resulted, abounding in off-sides, cross-checking and tumbles of the players, and the bench for roughing. The Frenchmen were roughing the Canadians. He simply had to tap it in. With almost effortless ease, Lalonde scored the first goal. The Toronto players began to stall for time. Aimless shots from mid-line were pulled off, while the wings did floundering business in front of the net. The Toronto players began to get the puck. The Canadians staged rally after rally. Lalonde and Hall took every trick in their repertoire. The game ended with the Canadian wings bombarding Holmes, but to no purpose.

ONTARIO'S DRY LAW IS MADE STIFFER BY NEW AMENDMENTS

Toronto, March 13.—Amendments to make the O. T. A. "airtight" were presented to the Legislature today. They put a stop to indirect delivery. When liquor is delivered to any other person than the consignee or to another address, the shipment of liquor may be seized. Manufacturers of cider must get a permit from the Ontario license board. New clauses are also added to coincide with the new Dominion act. Intoxicated people can be arrested without a warrant. Essence, tincture, compound or preparation containing alcohol shall be sold except in bottles containing not more than two and a-half ounces. A record of the sale must be kept by the manufacturer, merchant or druggist selling the preparation. Druggists are forbidden to dispose of any tincture, essence or extract of ginger except on the order of a properly qualified physician and then only to a person having a permanent residence in the municipality, in which the sale takes place and after an affidavit has been taken from the purchaser that the same is for medicinal purposes. Further powers to regulate patent medicines containing more than 2½ per cent proof spirit, is another. Doctors issuing a prescription will have their names placed on the bottle by the vendor, and the name of the person for whom prescribed. More vendors are to be licensed to import and sell medicinal purposes. Amendments are made to exclude apartment blocks over stores.

8 TO 1 AGAIN SUN BRIAR

NEW YORK, March 13.—Emil Herz, who owns Short Grass, is buying 8 to 1 on the Kentucky Derby. War Cloud and Escoba are on equal terms with Sun Briar, in Herz's opinion, but he is willing to lay 8 to 1 against Papp, last year's turfity winner. Herz and other turfmen believe that Papp, a sprinter, will not like the Derby distance at Churchill Downs. The presence of eastern cracks in the big Kentucky Derby is arousing an unusual interest among those who enjoy shooting at future prices.

The Canadians' team-work brought success to them within a minute and a half after the rest period. Lalonde took a long shot at the goal, and Holmes misjudged. It was a stroke of luck for the Frenchmen. The puck switched to Toronto and the heading shot by Skinner, glancing on both sides, when Crawford caught Veziina off his guard, and the puck lying motionless in front of the net. He simply had to tap it in. With almost effortless ease, Lalonde scored the first goal. The Toronto players began to stall for time. Aimless shots from mid-line were pulled off, while the wings did floundering business in front of the net. The Toronto players began to get the puck. The Canadians staged rally after rally.
