HEALTH PERFECT NOW, SAYS BROWN

Suffered Ten Years-Is Re lieved by Tanlac, Says St. John, Man.

"I had suffered from indigestion for ten years before I began taking Tanlac, and the way it has built me up is something remarkable, for I am feeling like a young man again," was the statement made recently by T. H. Brown, proprietor of the Valley Meat and Fish Market, who lives at 41 Winter street, St. John, New Brunswick.

"I have certainly had my share of suffering in this world, for I have been bothered for the past ten years with the

My sleep was restless, and when morning came I always got up feeling tired and wornout. "Here is how I got hold of Tanlac and started taking it: A customer of mine had been trying to get me to take Tan.

ac, as he had tried it and with remarkable results, but I kept putting it off. One day he walked into my shop and put a bottle of Tanlac down on the counter, and said: 'Try that.' I took his advice and I want to tell you that proved to be the turning point of my life. That very first bottle bit the enot and I kept taking it until now I am in absolutely perfect health. I eat heartfly now and enjoy every meal. My ditroubled afterwards at all. I sleep sound at night, and get up of mornings feeling brimful of life and energy. Yes, sir, I am a new man today and feel years

TO HOLD BIG UNION SERVICE GOOD FRIDAY

Methodist Ministers Arrange Plans Today.

Arrangements have been made for a union service of all the London Methodist churches to be held in the Dundas Centre Church on Good Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock. In previous years a service has been held in each church. At this union service Rev. R. G. Peever and Rev. T. H. Ferguson will be in charge. The Methodist Ministerial Association also decided at its meeting this morning to observe the "Go-To-Church" Sunday on March 28.

STUDIO RECITAL .- Saturday evening, in the commodious studio of J. Parnell-Morris, a recital of much in-terest was given. A number of pupils were heard in recital for the first time,

W. R. Sharms. He was a former resident of London, having lived at 1025 King street, and was last heard of by the commission in the summer of 1919, when he was in Kincardine. The paymaster-general has notified the local S. A. C. that Sharms has a large amount of his gratuity coming to him, as no application was made for it at the time he was discharged.

CAPE COD CANAL CLOSED.

Buzzards Bay, Mass., March 1.—As a result of a dispute over its ownership the Cape Cod Canal was closed today. The owners entered an appeal from the price awarded by a jury after the Government had seized the Anal, and this appeal is still pending. With the relinquishment of control by the railingual administration the general closed the canal.

The canal threaten to break to pieces?" asks the newspaper. The Tempo says it is satisfied that the Allies recalled to the "ill-humored dictator of the White House" that the Treaty of London must be applied if the Italo-Jugo-Slav negotiations fail, but says they ought to have other secret treaties. "which he so in obstinately emphasizes against Italy."
