PAGE OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

TELL IT TO THE SOCIETY EDITOR.

PERKINS-GRAHAM.

A pretty wedding took place on Tuesday the 19th, when Miss Kathleen Graham, daughter of Mrs. Duncan Graham of Ekfrid, formerly of Melbourne, was united in marriage to Mr. Ralph Perkins of Aylmer.

Mrs. Albright, LL.B., will be the speaker to address the Girls' Canadian Club meeting at the Wellington street W. W. C. A. on Wednesday evening control of the bride wore a hand-some gown of navy charmeuse and corsect the control of the bride wore a hand-some gown of navy charmeuse and corsect the control of the bride wore a hand-some gown of navy charmeuse and corsect the control of the bride wore a hand-some gown of navy charmeuse and corsect the control of the bride wore a hand-some gown of navy charmeuse and corsect the control of the bride wore a hand-some gown of navy charmeuse and corsect the control of the bride wore a hand-some gown of navy charmeuse and corsect the control of the bride wore a hand-some gown of navy charmeuse and corsect the control of the bride wore a hand-some gown of navy charmeuse and corsect the control of the bride wore a hand-some gown of navy charmeuse and corsect the control of the bride wore and corsect the control of the bride word and corsect th

Mrs. James C. Taylor of Hamilton is the guest of Mrs. A. B. Greer, 99 York street. They will be at home on Wed-nesday afternoon to receive old friends of Mrs. Taylor.

Mrs. Chester Pugh, 729 King street, entertained last Wednesday afternoon in aid of the Sick Children's Hospital. Mrs. Percy Kerr of St. Thomas, and Mrs. R. Lackie, poured tea, assisted by Mrs. W. Walsh, while little Miss Jean Brooks and Miss Margaret Barrett were quaint door attendants. very pleasant evening was spent a

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mrs. Lenehan, Hyatt avenue. on Wednesday last, when her sister, Miss Terese Addison. was surprised by about forty friends who tendered her a kitchen shower. Miss Addison's marriage to Mr. T. J. Hunt of Toronto takes place shortly.

A very enjoyable time was spent on Friday evening, Oct. 29, at the home of Miss Mildred Jakes, when she entertained about twenty-five of her friends at a masquerade Halloween party. The guests arrived at 8 o'clock, masked and looking gay in costumes representing ghosts, witches, clowns, knights, Bo-Peep, Blue Beard and other historical personages. Mr. Roy Anderson captured the prize. Music and games were enjoyed and refreshments served.

Dr. and Mrs. Nelson George were the hosts of a delightful Halloween dance and card party held at the Institute of Musical Art on Friday night. One of the unique features of the function was a real true to life fortune-teller on the job enjoyable afters of its kind heat the season, about seventy-five couples being present. From three large tables, prettily decorated with all sorts of Halloween novelties, bowls of marigoids and cherry-faced pumpkins, Mrs. E. B. Smith, Mrs. W. J. Robinson, Mrs. Kraden, Mrs. W. J. Robinson, Mrs. Kraden, Mrs. W. J. Robinson, Mrs. Kraden, Mrs. K and cherry-faced pumpkins, Mrs. E. B. Smith, Mrs. W. J. Robinson, Mrs. Niven, Mrs. E. H. Johnston, Mrs. Fred White and Mrs. Percy Ball, poured tea, assisted by the members of the Sir John Carling Chapter. Among those responsible for the success of the tea were Miss Jean Waugh, the regent, Miss Ruth Robinson, Miss Doris Massey and Miss Jessie Gillespie.

SHAVER—NELLES.

St. Paul's Cathedral was the scene of a pretty but quiet wedding on Saturday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock, when Aliene Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mungo Nelles, became the bride of Walter W. Shaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shaver of Woodstock, the Rev. Dean Tucker officiating. The SHAVER-NELLES.

St. Paulic Cathedral was the scene of a pretty but quiet wedding on Satural Common at Laure fox for the She wore the silt of the ministry.

LAMB-PILON.

LAMB-PILON.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nature are Educator with the strains of the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengria of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengria of the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengria of the "Brida more or less conscious of an incentive to self-improvement. Owing to the top-heavy trend of popular education this lowed chiefly along lines of mental improvement. The trouble with popular education in this country has been that it ignored the sound principle of mens sana in corpore sano. We still have too many educators who imagine a sound ne wants it. Ignorance is just plain aziness is every case. One's learning is limited only by his appetite for knowllimited only by his appetite for knowledge. Just at present there is a sort of speed mania prevalent among the multitude seeking wisdom, a craze for short cuts to knowledge or skill or culstrate to knowledge or skill or culstrate of the part of the secretary of the part of the secretary of the short cuts to knowledge or skill or cul-ture, a scramble on the part of the credulous after sundry "systems" of getting wisdom quickly, for these quack systems seem so much less laborious than the old way of acquiring educa-tion. Why spend months or years study-ing Spanish, the piano or the healing art when you can master the whole thing in twelve lessons by mail? Short cuts are invented for the shiftless who can be developed in an unsound mind can be developed in an unsound body. An "accomplished." or "cultured" some pala for ice cruities which every one of us would be glad to possess. This refining process is a matter of self-discipline. Every individual may have a liberal education if the works it. Egrogance is just plain of the X-ray some doctors or techni-cians working constantly with the ray did suffer serious injuries, but there is no risk to the patient in having mo-mentary exposures for making X-ray

WAGSTAFFE'S

Celebrated

MINCEMEAT

Fresh Milk.

Is milk good for children when just fresh from the cow, or should it be cooled first? When is the best sign of the moon to wean a child?—Mrs. J. M. Ans.—Milk fresh and still warm is ideal for children or adults—I'd walk five miles for a quart any time. Excellent success in weaning is met with in all signs of the moon, though I regret to annow the grannies by saying so. some gown for navy charmeuse and corsage of Richmond roses.

After a wedding supper, the bride's table being prettily arranged with pink tulle and roses, the young couple left for New York and Atlantic City, and on their return will reside in Toronto. The bride's going-away costume was a smart suit of navy tricotine and a very becoming hat of black beaver trimmed with monkey fur.

The house guests for the wedding were Mr. Arthur Nelles, Miss Jessie Nelles, and Miss Dalsy Mason of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shaver and Miss Isabel Shaver of Woodstock, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Platt of Chicago, Dr. Warren Lockett and Mrs. Lockett of Hamilton, and Mr. H. Brodie of Toronto. to annoy the grannies by saving so. (Copyright National Newspaper Service)

MANY MOTOR CARS, BUT FEW LIBRARIES,

SAYS BRUGE TAYLOR

SAYS BRUGE TAYLOR

Noted Educationalist Addresses Women's Canadian Club.

Principal Bruce Taylor of Queen's University, addressed the Women's Canadian Club on Saturday afternoon in the Normal School, on "Education and the Home." Throughout his address, eloquent yet characterized by dignified simplicity, the speaker laid stress on the influence of the home in the giving of a child a properly balanced education. The great influence of books was also discussed.

To key to market for suedes with such high heels."

She bundled the things together, leaned her elbows on the counter, and stared at me with a far-off look in her esmall eyes, like a reflective pig, if such a thing there be!

"Mhat about eight dollars for the lot? They're not worth more—"

"Impossible!" My voice was snappish. "Why, the georgette cost forty dollars, and I've only worn it four limes! And the blouse was twelve-fifty, when new. The shoes fifteen dollars. They're in perfect condition. I'd sooner give them away than let them go at the sum you name."

"Tut, tut, dearie! You don't understand the condition of the market!" as the saw you name."

"Tut, tut, dearie! You don't understand the condition of the market!" as the saw you name."

"Tut, tut, dearie! You don't understand the condition of the market!" as the saw you name."

"Tut, tut, dearie! You don't understand the condition of the market!" as the saw you name."

"Tut, tut, dearie! You don't understand the condition of the market!" as the saw you name."

"I never saw a country where there were so many motion care to the neared as voluminous sigh. "Well, we'll say ten dollars. That's ruin for me, but—"

I shook my head. A pretty wedding took place at the First Methodist parsonage, London, on Saturday, October 30, at 2:30 p.m., when Miss Florance Bott became the bride of Mr. John A. Dixon, both of this city, the Rev. Dr. Peever officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Dixon will reside on Grey street. A very quiet wedding was solemnized on Wednesday, October 27, at the Tempo Presbyterian Church, when Miss Myrtle Davidson, eldest daughter of Mr. Myrtle Davidson, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Davidson, was united in marriage to Mr. Westley Hunt of Scottsville. After a wedding breakfast at Wong's Cafe Mr. and Mrs. Hunt left

Western Ontario

Address News For This Column the Editor of Woman's Page.

MRS. ELIZABETH KENT, MacDONALD COLLEGE.

BOX PLAITS.

tring in twelve lessons by mail? Short cuts are invented for the shiftless who would walk with the elect without having earned the privilege. Even in the handicrafts the apprentice today is not content to learn his trade reasonably well; he must compete with his masters offer. Box plaits are still sometimes used ably well; he must compete with his trade reasonably well; he must compete with his masters after a few weeks of superficial experience. There are short cuts, too, for physical improvement; the more ridiculous the system of healing the less knowledge or skill the freak healer requires to practice it and the more to be superseded by facings or plain pened. Is there really any risk involved in combining these two items at one meal? (J. F. H.)

ANSWER—The only risk is that certain plausible "food specialists" may inspire less credulity among your friends.

The combination is not attractive to some palates, but if your appetite calls for ice cream and lobster, or any other possible combination of foods, there is no reason why you need hesitate to Safety of X-Ray.

Is it advisable to have a child's mouth X-rayed to determine the condition of the teeth? Is it true that X-less knowledge or skill the freak healer requires to practice it and the more eagerly people purchase it.

It is generally recognized that a very sick man cannot exercise good judgment. It is for this reason that a sick doctor seldom attempts to treat himself. People readily make allowances for, or discount or even reject the opinions or actions of their public servants when these representatives are known to be seriously ill. But the impairment of judgment by comparatively slight illness is usually not considered though it is still true that a sound mind requires a sound body.

I have repeatedly urged upon readers the value of regular daily room gymnastics in maintaining better health, health plus. In advising such exercises I have had in mind nothing else than

"The Mincemeat With A Punch"

It has all the old-time flavor, made from a celebrated English ormula that has been handed down from generation to eneration. TRY IT. It may cost a few cents more but it is worth on a motor trip for points west.

ASK YOUR GROCER FOR IT

THOMAS—COURTIS.

One of the prettiest of autumn weddings took place on Oct. 27, at 4 o'clock, at the home of the bride's father, Mr. John Courtis, Lambeth, when his daughter, Reba C., was united in marriage to Mr. Frank Thomas, also of Lambeth. Rev. Mr. Kitley officiated in the presence of about forty friends and relatives. The bride looked charming in a gown of white duchess satin trimmings. In a gown of white duchess satin trimmed with georgette, lace and pearls and wore a veil and orange blossoms. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss restelle Courtis, who wore white organdy with pink trimmings. Mr. Earl Thomas, brother of the groom, was best man. The house was a bower of autumn foliage and flowers. After addinty supper was served, the happy couple left for Detroit and Chicago, the bride travelling in a suit of navy blue chiffon broadcloth and smart velvet hat to match. She wore the gift of the groom, a taupe fox fur.

LAMB—PILON.

Women's Activities

Cayuga W. I.

The regular monthly meeting of the Cayuga Women's Institute, held at the home of Mrs. M. A. Crooker on Thursday afternoon, was largely attended. Miss M. P. Smith gave a most interesting paper on "Cheerfulness" and each member expressed briefly her particular reason for thankfulness. A good deal of discussion took place regarding the course of Chautauqua concerts for which the institute has arranged and which are being anticipated with great pleasure. First-class artists have been secured and the proceeds are to be devoted to the Soldiers' Memorial in which all the institute members are so keenly interested. raying is dangerous, and that it has proved fatal to a number of patients?

—J. R. L.

Ans.—It is advisable to have X-ray pictures made if the child's physician so directs. The making of such pictures has never proved fatal or done sides, and basting it flat, afterwards stitching it. To lay several box plaits mark a line for the centre of the first plait, using French chalk; on both sides of the line measure it to one-half the width of the whole plait for the fold, and crease, From this fold measure once the width

BOX PLATE of the plait for the line to which the fold of the plait is to be laid; from this line measure again once the width of the plait, crease, and lay the fold to the last line marked. Measure from this fold once the width of the plait, crease for the fold of the plait, and so on for the number of plaits desired. (Copyright, 1920, by the Metropolitan Newspaper Service.)

Comprising Blouse Pattern 3240, cut in 7 sizes, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust measure, and Ladies' Skirt Pattern 3226, cut in 7 sizes: 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 32 and 34 inches, waist measure. The other seasonable materials.

This illustration calls for TWO separate patterns, which will be mailed to any address on receipt of 15 cents FOR EACH pattern in silver or stamps.

BY MAY CHRISTIE

(Copyright, 1920, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

sort of thing." He leered unpleasantly at me. "What about your voice, eh 26" "Light soprano."
"Humph! Not strong?"
"Sufficiently. And quite well trained. He nodded, sucking the end of the black cigar in a ruminative fashion. Then he said:
"Any experience?"

The way experience?

It was my turn to nod.

"I've played before. Off and on, for a couple of years." I did not add that my performances had been merely amateur. And I was thankful that he made no further inquiries on that

Cynthia Grey's

Mail-Box

I were but little happy if I could

Around the Grate Fire.

Dear Miss Grey,-I have been a reader of your valuable paper for a long time, and like many others I am coming for help. This cold snap puts one in mind of covering one's toes. I am inclosing an envelope for the famous tocking foot pattern, also stamps for

Ans.—I have mailed you the pattern, Carrot Tops, but I guess you forgot to inclose the stamps for the fund,

Dear Miss Grey,-Please find inclosed

And many thanks to Heather Bell' for sending them. SNOWAPPLE. Ans.—The directions have been for-

Dear Miss Grey,—I wrote to you only a short time ago, but saw where Pumpkin Sweet wanted a tam pat-tern and A Busy Girl the words of "Beautiful Ohio" and "Dear Heart." so am sending them in hope Pumpkin Sweet understands the tam pattern.

would like to correspond with Pussy-foot as I am her age (16). Best wishes o the Mail-Box, MAYBELLE.

Ans.—Thank you very much for the words of the songs and the tam direc-tions, which have been forwarded to

A Lover of School-Thank you very much for the morning glory seeds, which reached the Mail-Box today.

Dear Miss Grey,-Having seen others

I enjoy reading the story in the London Advertiser very much (The Marriage of Anne). Now come the

1. Could you or any of the readers tell me where I could get an Easy Form Music Book?

2. Where could I get a bagpipe and how much would it cost?

Inclosed find a bit for the fund.
A LOVER OF MUSIC.
Ans.—Kindly send a stamped addressed envelope, repeating request, and I will endeavor to assist you.

A Maiden Old—Kindly send in your name and address as there is a letter to be forwarded to you.

Inclosed find stamped, addressed en-velope, also 35 cents for the Hospital

Children's Hospital. RUBY.

Ans.—The S. F. P. has been forwarded to you. Thanks for the Hospital dime.

Dear Cynthia Grey.—I received the apron pattern, and have copied it, so am returning it. I was awfully disappointed because it was much too small, as I am nearly 15 yearsr old but as I am nearly 15 yearsr old but mother said she would cut it larger for crochet paterns.

stamped addressed envelope for warded to you, Snowapple,

CARROT TOPS.

sick children's hospital.

directions.

Any experience

XLIV.—Selling Clothes

A large woman with a florid countenance came forward, smiling suavely.

"Good morning, miss. What can I do for you?"

I deposited my bundle on the counter.

"I—I wanted to sell you something. Just a few odd things—" I was as bashful as a schoolgiri. I did not like my mission.

She opened the parcel with long-practiced fingers. The suave smile did not leave her face as she examined the contents.

"H"m. Georgette gown. Worn quite a lot, isn't it? Stuff rather thin, Quite pretty. Let's see what this is. She jerked the pink blouse into view. She jerked the pink blouse into view. "Crepe-de-chine. A bit faded. Style "Crepe-de-chine. A bit faded. Style "They're not wear."

He was small and broad and lat and ugly, with an oily countenance, and pudgy hands whereon glittered several jeweled rings.

A large cigar rolled from one corner of his loose mouth to the other.

He sat back in his swivel chair, and eyes my points as though I were a race-horse.

This did not disconcert me. I had expected it expected it.

"Play principal boy, eh? Got a good figger, m'dear! Nice legs, and all that sort of thing." He leered unpleasantly at me. "What about your voice, eh stand the condition of the short of the say ten dollars. That's ruin for me, but—"

I shook my head.
"Impossible!"
Nothing would make me give way to this Shylock. I stretched out my hand, this Shylock. I stretched out my hand, and swept the things together, jerking the paper round them. In half a minute I had left the shop.

The next place was less successful, and the next, and next.
I was growing tired, too. Yes—and discouraged.

I was growing the fashionable on tour! That meant I couldn't save a penny!

Also, I was nearing the fashionable neighborhoods. I did not want to enter haunts where I might meet people that knew.

A miserable nifteen dollars a week—on tour! That meant I couldn't save a penn!

And my heart sank down—down—down! I knew.

Near Herald Square I saw a girl who used to be at school with me. Quickly
I dashed up a side street to avoid I dashed up a side street to avoid recognition.

At last I found a clothes-shop where the dealer offered me the princely sum of twelve and a half dollars.

And I accepted it. I was so tired that I would have accepted anything to get rid of my parcel.

"Now I must decide on a career," I told myself.

Like most romantic girls, the stage attracted me. It seemed so easy to sing a few simple little songs, dances.

Like most romantic girls, the stage attracted me. It seemed so easy to sing a few simple little songs, dance airly and look bewitching.

And so I hied me to the agents.
I had twelve and a half dollars in my pockets now. It made me feel quite opulent!

Owing to the pattern manufac-turers increasing the price of pat-terns to us, all patterns adver-tised from this date will be 15 CENTS EACH.

A Pretty Summer Frock.
Comprising Blouse Pattern 3240, cut in 7 sizes, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inchees bust measure, and Ladies' Skirt Pattern 3226, cut in 7 sizes; 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 32 and 34 inches, waist measure. The width of the skirt at its lower edge is 17% yards.

It will require 8 yards of 36-inch material for a medium size, for the entire dress of one material.

As here shown embroidered linen was used. One could have foulard, satin, voile, shantung, gingham, organdle, or other seasonable materials.

This illustration calls for TWO separate patterns, which will be mailed to SPIREA.

Ans.—Your request is referred to the Name

Newest Arrivals

OF SUITS, COATS AND DRESSES, in the season's latest styles and shades, at reasonable prices. Your inspection is invited.

Justrite Ladies' Wear

Justrite Ladies' Wear

Phone 2614

CAUTION: Be careful to inclose the above illustration, and send size of pattern wanted. When the pattern is bust measure, you need only mark 38, 64, or whatever it may be. When in waist u.easure, 22, 24, 26, or whatever it may be. If a skirt, give waist and length measure. When misses' or child's pattern, write only the figure representing the age, it is not necessary to write "inches" or "years." Patterns cannot reach you in less than one week from the date of application.

GRAY'S, LIMITED

Store Hours: 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., Saturdays Included.

Wear Warmer Underwear

Fall and Winter Underwear of Good Quality and Value

Underwear Department, Main Floor.

HARVEY "UNDIES," tailored to fit the form.

HARVEY KNIT COMBINA-TIONS of fine cotton, V neck, long sleeves, or low neck, sleeveless, finished with band top, ankle length, sizes 34 to 44. Price, per suit $3.00 and $3.25

HARVEY COMBINATIONS of pink cotton, narrow straps over shoulder, ankle length. Price, a suit......$3.00

HARVEY BLOOMERS, winter weight, pink and white, sizes 36 to 44. Price, a pair $1.50 and $1.75

HARVEY VESTS of fine cotton, V neck, elbow, long sleeves or sleeveless, low neck, sizes 36 to 44; drawers to match. A garment $1.50 and $1.75

Peerless Underwear

Beautifully fashioned and of superior wearing qualities.

PEERLESS COMBINATIONS of fine cotton, sleeveless, low neck, ankle length, buttoned over back. Price, a suit $2.75 | a garment

BLOOMERS, silk and wool, elastic at top and knees. Price, a pair $2.25 WOMEN'S FLEECE-LINED VESTS, grey or white, long sleeves, high neck, drawers to match. Price, a garment $1.50 WOMEN'S VESTS, of fine cotton, round neck, elbow sleeves or low neck, sleeveless. Price, a garment$1.00 CHILDREN'S WOOL VESTS AND DRAW-ERS, natural and cream, Turnbull's make. Priced, according to size

...... $1.25 to $1 65 a garment CHILDREN'S FLEECE - LINED VESTS AND DRAWERS, sizes 2 to 12 years. Price.

Seasonable Hosiery Reasonably Priced

Hosiery Department, Main Floor,

LADIES' PURE WOOL CASHMERE LADIES' BROWN CASHMERE-FINISH HOSE, full fashioned, widened top; colors of navy, brown, grey and black. Price, a

LADIES' EX. OUTSIZE PURE WOOL CASHMERE HOSE, fashioned leg, spliced heels and toes, sizes 9½, 10, 10½. Price, a pair $2.50

LADIES" HEATHER HOSE, in a large variety of colors; they are the correct fashion | CHILDREN'S BROWN CASHMERE HOSE. for coming winter wear. Prices range from fine ribbed, sizes 5 to 9. Priced, a pair, from

HOSE, full fashioned. Price, a pair....75c LADIES' O. S. BLACK CASHMERE-FINISH HOSE. Price, a pair$1.00 and brown, with colored tops. Priced, a pair, at $1.75, $2.00 and $2.50 CHILDREN'S RIBBED CASHMERE HOSE. Priced, according to size. Pair $1.10 to $2.50 $2.00 to $5.00 a pair 75c to $1.25

140 DUNDAS STREET.

PHONES 115, 116.

since I wrote, and I thank you very much for the information you gave me. This time I come for help again. Will you please send me a few of the seeds which Thistle sent in? I would like a few holl$hocks and asters and any other kinds which you have. In return I will send a mite, and first day I get a chance will send you some Morning chance will send you some Morning Glory seeds. My Morning Glories have a very large leaf. I will close, wishing you and the boxites lots of fun on Halloween. LOVER OF SCHOOL. P.S.—Will you please send me the mitten pattern?

Ans.—We would be pleased to have the Morning Glory seeds, as so far none have been sent in. I have mailed you the seeds, also the mitten pattern, Dear Miss Grey.—Will you kindly send me the stocking-foot pattern and some seeds of love-in-the-mist and snapdragons?

Enjoy the Mall-Box. Dear Miss Grey,-I have never written to your page before, but hope you will welcome a bashful little girl to your Thanking you in advance, ROSALIE.
Ans.—Thanks for the gift for the Hospital, Rosalie. The seeds have been Mail-Box. I am sorry Black-Eyed Edna had to spend the lovely summer Edna had to spend the lovely summer days in a cot on the porch. I spent mine in St. Joseph's Hospital at London, in a cot. I am inclosing my mite to help ease some little darling's pain, also some seeds for the Mail-Box. Will you please send me some Cornflower and Love-in-the-Mist seeds? I enjoy reading your Mail-Box letters very much and would like to correspond with any girl of my age, which is 18. I finished high school this June, but must take a rest before going to Normal. My address is with Miss Grey if anyone cares to write me. Wishing your Mail-Box every success.

Ans.—Thank you for the seeds and the hospital mite, K. L have sent you the seeds you asked for. Dear Miss Grey,—May I trouble you to forward the stocking-foot pattern that so many people want? I can make good use of it, too. This is my first visit to your column. Hope I am not troubling you too much. May I call again? Inclosed find dime for Sick Children's Hospital.

A Hospital Gift. Dear Miss Grey,—I am a constant reader of your valuable page, and en-joy it very much. I find it both help-iul and interesting. I read in some of your recent letters where someone had sent in some flower seeds. As I am very fond of flowers, may I ask you to send me some seeds? My mother would also like the stocking-foot pattern. Hoping I have not caused you too much trouble on my first visit to your Mail-Box. Inclosed please find $1 for the Children's Hospital fund. $1 for the Children's Hospital fund.

Thanking you for your trouble and hoping I have not taken too much of your valuable space.

A LOVER OF FLOWERS.
Ans.—Indeed, you may come again and as often as you wish. I have sent you the seeds you requested, also the S. F. P. for mother. Thank you very much for the lovely big mite. You will have to be a Lover of Flowers the second.

LOIS (IST). Ans.—Your request is referred to the readers. I have forwarded you the seeds and patterns, and thank you very much for the hospital mite and the Dear Miss Grey.—Please accept this mite for the Children's Hospital, and could you spare me a stocking-foot pattern?

MRS. J. M.

Dear Miss Grey,—I would like to correspond with a girl about 15 years as I am nearly 15 years old but mother said she would cut it larger for me.

Is it raining in London? It's just coming down "cats and dogs" here. I think it's awfully mean, after such nice weather.

I am sorry I can send nothing for the hospital but I am broke, and I guess nearly everybody knows what that is. Well, so long to everyone. BUSTER.

Morning Glory Seeds.

Morning Glory Seeds.

Morning Glory Seeds.

Dear Miss Grey.—It is a long time

Mothers! These Shoes Wear

> MOST mothers who buy Hurlbuts once, buy them always—but they never need to buy them as often as any other make. This is because Hurlbut Shoes are better shoes, and have exclusive features not found in other makes.

> Compare Hurlbuts with the life of any pair of ordinary shoes you have ever boughtand you will see that Hurlbut Welted Cushion Sole Shoes represent the lowestprice-per-day's-wear of any shoe made for

HURLBUT CUSHION-SOLE Shoes & Children

THE HURLBUT CO., Limited

Made at Preston Canada Sole Wholesale Distributor for Canada : PHILIP JACOBI

Sold only through your local dealer. If he does not handle Hurlbuts, write us and we will see that you are supplied