FAMOUS BAND OF BOYS HEADS BILL AT SHEA'S

Form Feature of an Unusually Good Line-Up of Vaudeville Turns.

Thirty-eight bright youngsters from the Columbia Park Boys' Club of San Francisco are appearing at Shea's this week, headl.ning a good bill in a splendid offering of music, drill and symnastics. Their reception at yesterday's performance was tremendous. Dainty Dolly Connolly contributed a number of pretty new songs. number of pretty new songs, accompanied by the composer of such well-known hits as "Put On Your Old Grey Bonnet" and "Moonbeam Bay." Miss Connolly's frocks were particularly charming. Francis Yates and Bernard Wheeler were a riot of no sense and fun in "Who's Who and Which."

Harry and Eva Puck were popular in a bright music and song offering while the talented bittle El Rey Sisters were wonder dolls on roller skates. Harry B. Toomer and Company, in a snappy little playlet, "The Headliners," have an offering crowded with fun. Frank Burt, Ed. Johnston and company have a bright comedy offering, with plenty of music and chatter; while Donald Kerr and Effic Veston, in unusual dances and number of new songs, have a suitable vehicle. "Statement Was Unfounded" Says Minister of Militia

Sir Edward Kemp stated yesterday that Captain Chaplain W. J. Hindley of the 119th Battalion of Winnipeg had no authority to make any such statement as he did to his congregation that the Militia Act would be enforced within sixty days, and perhaps in thirty days. Sr Edward stated that no statement as to what was in store for the future of the act would be made until after his return to Ottawa in a day or so.

Major-General W. A. Logie, Col. H. C. Bickford and Col. S. C. Mewburn were in conference yesterday at the Exhibition Grounds, and it is understood that they were discussing recommendations that will be sent to the government regarding the future of the militia. Col. Mewburn leaves for Ottax a tonight to lay the prolesses for Ottax a tonight to lay the prolesses for Ottax a tonight to lay the prolesses of ound expedient.

The Love Tale of a Scotch Village Lassie Forms Splendid Medium for Talented Actress. Kitty Macka; adapted from the play that name, teaturing Lillian Walker, is the headliner at the Strand this week. The story deals with the life of Scottish lassie who has been brought p in a little seaside Scottish village. She is taken home by her parents when she reaches the age of eighteen and in her new surroundings in the great city, she falls in love with the son of the man whom she believes to be her father. All the tangles are finally straightened out by a revelation by the man who acted as her foster father, when he thinks he is on his death bed. Frank Daniels as Captain Jirks in the farce "Captain Jinks Cure" tells of the ills that beset the man who worries about his health. How the cousin of the long-suffering wife finally cures him is the story that abounds with laughs. The Mutual Weekly, showing current events, rounds off a bill that is

MANY ATTEND FUNERAL OF J. LORNE CAMPBELL

Those Present Include Members of the Family and Representatives of Toronto Financial Houses.

The funeral of J. Lorne Campbell, ex-president of the Toronto Stock Exchange, and for years a well-known member of the financial community, took place yesterday afternoon. Rev. Canon Plumptre, of St. James' Cathe-dral, conducted the funeral service at family residence, 509 Huron street, sion due to her nusband's carelessness in not observing the flagging rule. Mrs. Foster becomes so hysterical that she hastens to the railroad yard, where she overhears a conversation between two men, one of whom has lost his leg owing to home troubles having occupied his mind at a critical moment.

A friend induces Jack to attend a safety first rally, at which unsafe practices are illustrated. Jack is so impressed with what he has seen and heard that on his return home he bends over the bed where his two children are sleeping and determines to banish carelessness for ever, and the play ends with the statement that:
