in "THE VALENTINE GIRL"

(By Laura Sawyer.)

Miss Clark, dainty and diminutive, will add greatly to the popularity she gained in "Miss George Washington," 'Snow White' and her other successes.

In "THE VALENTINE GIRL" pretty Marguerite Clark plays the part of a little girl who gradually grows up and understands. It is a charming story with intensely interesting action and flavored with the spice of Miss Clark's own touches of humor and occasional pathos.

Handsome Harold Lockwood, The Lover Dainty May Allison, The Girl

THE THOUSAND ISLANDS, in the St. Lawrence River, the beauty spot of North America, furnishes many glorious settings for this screen masterpiece, which is unrivalled in its scenic beauty. The swiftly-moving story is full of incidents that absolutely demand the daring of two such fearless players as Mr. Lockwood and Miss Allison. Flights by night in strange waters are followed by narrow escapes from drowning and sensational rescues. And through the fabric of beauty and adventure is woven the thread of a powerful and delightful love story.

The approaching race meet will be the tribute of Canadian cyclists in general to soldiers in Canadian military hospitals. The date, August 11, has been set aside as the "Cyclists' Day for Suffering Soldiers" and all interests are combining to make the event the greatest meet in the Dominion for years. In addition to the professional championship, the C. W. A. will stage the Ontario Provincial Championships for the amateurs and there.
