SAYS SPEAKER IS THE GREATERT OUTFIELDER IN HISTORY OF GAME
No Advantage to Home Team.
Are the Giants to suffer a disadvantage in the coming series because they are the first five games are to be played on the home park of their opponents?
It is generally believed that the home team has the advantage in all games, since it is more familiar with its own field and plays before a crowd always willing to offer encouragement. However, this does not seem entirely astray in the world's series played between the National and American leagues. Nor has the team which won the toss and opened the series on its home grounds been as successful as the team which opened away from home. The history of the world's series since 1913 is a story of success for the "visiting" clubs, likewise a story of success for the club which lost the toss for the opening game. This result of past series guarantees nothing in the series to come, but at least it furnishes proof that the dependence on the "home" team and the club opening at home is based on theory rather than on results.

Al Demaree is Lucky.
Al Demaree, pitcher for the New York Giants, who will figure in the world series with the Chicago White Sox, is the luckiest in baseball. He slaved in the Giants' end of the world series purse in 1914 while a member of the team. In 1916 he was with the Phillies, and shared in their end of the world series money. Sent to the Cubs he was bought back by McGraw, manager of the Giants, this year in time to share again in the world series money of that club. He has pitched twenty-two games this year, winning nine of them.
Wins $120,000 on Giants.
New York, Oct. 4.—Arnold Rothstein's faith in the New York Giants has been duly rewarded in a shower of greenbacks.
With the National League pennant clinched on Monday, wagers were paid off yesterday, and Rothstein's confidence in the ability of the Giants to capture the flag—a confidence born last fall—netted him the tidy sum of $120,000.
He wagered on the Giants at odds varying from 100 to 1 to even money, but the bulk of it was placed at 5 to 6. Some time ago when the New York team was nine games in front, Rothstein bet $15,000 against $600 with Bob Hilliard that it would win the pennant, and later bet $10,000 to $100.
Incidentally, he lost one wager of $10,000 that the Yankees would beat the White Sox, and again incidentally he remarked yesterday that he had made his last big baseball bet.
Dan Shay's Trial Postponed.
Indianapolis, Oct. 4.—For the second time the trial of Dan Shay, former manager of the Milwaukee American Association Baseball Club, charged with the murder of a negro waiter here, has been postponed. The trial was to have been started today, but illness of one of the attorneys in the case caused it to be delayed indefinitely.
Will Coombs Lead Pirates?
Rumor has it that Jack Coombs will be the next manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates. Hugo Bezdek, the boy manager, who took over the lowly Pirates this summer, is said to be tired of the job and will not be the Pittsburgh leader in 1918. Coombs' many friends in the province will wish him the best of luck if he becomes manager of Drefus' club.

The RED ACE The Red Ace
Is a gripping serial story of the Canadian Northwest Mounted Police, with most of the scenes laid in British Columbia. It has a thrill and punch in every chapter. A Canadian story that will interest and grip every Canadian. It will be shown tonight and Friday of this week in conjunction with the regular vaudeville programme, and on every Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of the weeks following.
Manager Joe Tinker, of the Columbus team, sizes up the matter. Joe says it is in common use among American Association pitchers, and was brought up to the majors by Dave Danaher, now a member of the White Sox. Nowadays, instead of using emery paper to roughen the ball, the pitchers roughen one place with their finger-nails and rub the ball on the opposite side briskly against the uniform. That rubbing makes the spot affected somewhat smoother and more slippery than the part scrubbed by the finger-nails. This combination of slight roughening and much smoothing, on opposite sides, produces a total variation in the surface of the ball that about equals the former trick of roughening one side with emery, without smoothing the other side. The tip is out that "Chief" Bender of the Phillies owes his marvellous "come-back" to the shiner, while it is said that Grmer and Finneran of St. Paul, can doctor a ball so that a manufacturer would not know it.

of Miss Harris M. The time of this heat, 2:00%, equals the season's race record. Miss Harris M. won the second heat in 2:02%, laying the programme over until tomorrow. The only race finished was the 2:18 trot, won by Allerton Heir in slow time.
Sydney Races.
At the racing meet in Sydney yesterday Tommy Cotter won the free-for-all in straight heats, best time 2:23%. Annie Laurie won first place in the three minute class, best time 2:27.
Grand Circuit Meet.
Rain interfered with the racing at Lexington yesterday and caused an early postponement. Allerton Heir won the 2:18 trot in straight heats, best time 2:13%. The other events were unfinished.
RING
Brennan Draws With Battler
Boston, Oct. 3.—Bill Brennan, the knockout king from Chicago, and Battling Levinsky boxed twelve rounds to a draw at the Armory A. A. last night. It was the best heavyweight battle that has been seen in Boston for a long time. Many of the fans were of the opinion that Brennan should have been given the decision. Brennan has never been against such a clever boxer as Levinsky before and he did so well that it is the general opinion among the local fans that he can defeat Fulton.

SCALPERS NOT SO CONFIDENT
Chicago, Oct. 4.—Most of the 17,000 reserved seats for the world's series game at White Sox Park were distributed today. Those who had been awarded tickets were notified two days ago to apply today and get their admission cards. The white cards bearing the notice were numbered and the number corresponds with the number on each ticket. A record of each ticket sold has been kept and with this the club officials hope to stamp out scalping. Scalpers, who up to today have been advertising that they would have plenty of tickets, appeared to have lost some of their confidence and refused to guarantee the tickets for any of the games here. They still contend, however, that they will have "some tickets," but admit that the supply will not equal the demand.
The White Sox, after a day of illness yesterday, on account of rain, are booked for two days of stiff practice. Manager Rowland said that he would not send the team to Weyburn Park to see the Chicago and New York Nationals play today, as he considered practice more essential than any lines they might get on their opponents from seeing them play. Eddie Collins, Eddie Cicotte and Kid Gleason, who saw the Giants play Tuesday, in Philadelphia, gave the White Sox the benefit of their observations yesterday in a long talk. Many thousands of applications for reservations have necessarily been refused as the capacity of the park is 32,000, composed of 17,000 reserved and approximately 15,000 non-reserved seats. President Comiskey of the White Sox expressed regret that so many persons would be disappointed.
New York Nationals are due here early this afternoon from the east, and according to the programme, they are to go direct from the station to Weyburn Park, for a practice game with the Chicago Nationals.
