BANQUET GIVEN FOR FIREMEN OF EAST SAINT JOHN

Pleasant Evening Enjoyed and Tributes Paid—Cards Tournament Planned

Thirty firemen and fire police of East Saint John were the guests last evening of the firemen of the district at a banquet and entertainment in the firemen's hall, which was beautifully decorated with flowers. F. E. Charles, chairman of the firemen, presided at the meeting. Addresses were also given by Deputy Chief James Reid and Foreman Harry Foster of the fire department, and Rupert Taylor, foreman of the salvage corps and fire police. The banquet was given by the fire police, to be worn when on duty.

Fire Chief S. L. Day spoke the words of the department and Council Robert McAllister paid a tribute to the board of firewardens, and congratulated them on their many commendations they had received from the Municipal Council. Addresses were also given by Deputy Chief James Reid and Foreman Harry Foster of the fire department, and Rupert Taylor, foreman of the salvage corps and fire police. A resolution of sympathy was tendered to the vice-chairman of the firewardens, A. M. Magers, who was hindered by sickness from being present.

PLAN TOURNAMENT
O. J. Lawson, S. L. Day, James Reid and Charles Farham were appointed to arrange for a cards tournament to take place in the coming season. Weddings

Scrubbans-Knox
A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Knox, 44 Saint John street, West Saint John, when their oldest daughter, Bertha May, was united in marriage to Wm. W. Scrubbans, of Belfast, Ireland. The bride was becomingly dressed in white silk with a white veil, and carried a bouquet of carnations. Miss Lillian Byers acted as bridesmaid. The bridegroom was attended by George Humphrey. Rev. Mr. Betram performed the ceremony. The parlor was prettily decorated for the occasion. After the wedding a dainty supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Scrubbans received many beautiful gifts including cut glass, linen and china.

White-Hubbard
A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday morning in Holy Trinity church when Miss Freda Hubbard of Yarmouth, N. S., was united in marriage to James R. White of Wakefield, Mass. The bride looked charming in a pretty dress of white georgette crepe with hat to match, she carried a bridal bouquet of Ophelia roses. After the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's residence. The bride received many beautiful gifts including china, silver and linen. The bridegroom will reside in Saint John for the summer months.

Wreck Commissioner to Investigate Matter of Collier Langan in Harbor
An official inquiry will be held into collisions caused by the Collier Langan last evening in the harbor. Capt. L. A. Demora, Dominion Wreck Commissioner for the Gulf of St. Lawrence, will be in charge of the inquiry. The Collier Langan is scheduled to be here again from Loughburg, and he will hold the investigation at that time. A further examination of the damaged tug Wasson was made this afternoon. The tug Ocean Spray took to the towing the schooner Frederick H. to St. George's Island pulpwood for Norwalk, Conn.

Gifts Presented At Fairville Farewell
Charles Magee, George Magee, Earle Moore and Albert Hovey of Fairville are to leave this afternoon for Kenora, Ont., where they will reside. Last evening fellow employees in the Nashua Pulp and Paper Mill, and their friends, numbering about 200, assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Magee, McGill street, and presented gifts and good wishes. On behalf of members of the family, Richard Craft presented to Charles Magee, a handsome initial suit case, and to George Magee, a set of military brushes, both bags, containing letters of farewell. Addresses expressing good wishes were given by Mr. A. Ladigan, Clifford Price and John McMaster. Music, games and dancing were enjoyed. Vocal and instrumental solos were given by Mrs. Richard Craft and Mrs. George Magee.

Canada's foreign trade during January was the largest for that month since 1921.
