"I believe the Canadian apple to be the finest in the world."—SIR GEO. E. FOSTER

"Canadian apples are all right—firm, juicy,
well-colored, good keepers."—LOTTIE BURMAN

"An apple a day keeps the doctor away"

"An Ounce of Apple is Worth a Pound of Cures"

The truth of the old saying is confirmed by the leading physicians of the world. 95% of our ills grow out of trouble in our digestive system. And 90% of such trouble can be prevented.

When the prevention is so pleasant, why let yourself need a cure? Eat apples—great, big, juicy, rosy-ripe Canadian apples—the finest fruit in the world.

John Burroughs, poet and scientist, says in his "Essay on the Apple":
"... full of vegetable acids and aromatics, what an enemy the apple is to jaundice, indigestion, and torpid liver! It is a gentle spur and tonic to the whole system."

APPLE LORE

Old Dr. Johnson, whose personal habits were immortalized by Boswell,
used to walk about the streets of London
munching an apple, his pockets sagging
under the weight of "reserve supplies."
He ranked the apple above all fruit—
and if he were alive today he would rank
the Canadian apple as the finest of his favorite fruit.

APPLE RECIPE

Sliced Apples baked in Cream
Pare, core and slice several apples; put into a baking dish and cover with cream;
bake for ten minutes.
Another good breakfast dish is made by covering the apples with well-cooked
oatmeal and baking for twenty minutes.
Serve with cream.
