STOCK SPECULATION LED TO HIS DOWNFALL

ADOLPHE ROTHBARTH

New York, Sept. 19.—Pleading guilty to a charge of obtaining $100,000 from the Mercantile National Bank on false pretenses, Adolphe Rothbarth, a well known hop importer, was locked up in the Tombs in default of $20,000 bail. Rothbarth admitted that it was his ambition to become a millionaire by stock speculation in Wall Street, and this, he claims, led him into a mesh of trouble, from which he could see no escape. He further said that at one time he obtained $100,000 from one bank when his assets were not more than $20,000.

ARCHBISHOP OF YORK, DEAD

He was educated at Edinburgh, Peterhouse, Cambridge, graduated in mathematical honors, 1858. Served in the Indian army 1847-52, retired as a lieutenant, and was ordained a deacon in 1858, priest in 1857, rector of Newington, 1860, rector of Kensington, 1875; Bishop of Lichfield, 1878. He published several learned works and was joint editor of The Church and the Age.

AGED WOODSTOCK RESIDENT DEAD

Delancey Smith Passed Away Last Evening Aged 78 Years

Woodstock, Sept. 19.—(Special)—In the death of Delancey Smith which occurred on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock an old and respected citizen has been removed from this community. Mr. Smith had been in failing health for the last two years, and about a month ago, suffered the second paralytic stroke from which he did not rally. He was a man of distinct personality and kind disposition and was universally respected. He was a lifelong Conservative and a Methodist. By his first wife, who was a Miss Rose of Sheffield he has two sons, Perry, of Heron, Mont., and two daughters, Mrs. C. G. Lavelle of Digby, N. S., and Mrs. Ada Fooks of Woodstock. Mrs. Joseph Griffith of Lower Woodstock is a sister. He died at 79 years of age. The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon.

GIN RICKETS FORGED HIS RESIGNATION

"There was nothing else to do. I placed the muzzle of my revolver against her head and fired. Then I fainted. When I recovered consciousness, about an hour later, I covered her body with rocks, glass and started to keep away the wolves. Then I began for Calgary.

"I was in such condition that I was ten days making the trip. When I arrived I hunted up the Hamilton and told him my story. He sent two deputies with me to the spot and they found things just as I had said. We buried my wife and returned to Calgary. An Inquest was held and I was exonerated. Shortly after that I had a sunstroke, and after my senses returned, but my nerves gave away and I am here now for treatment."

ICE-MAKERS LOT IS NOT A HAPPY ONE

The Man Who Makes the "Artificial" Has to Shovel Coal All Day

When the mercury is hovering about the 100 mark and you are rapidly melting into a grease spot on the pavement during these perspiring days, and someone should ask you how you would like to be the ice man, how would you like it? Great, eh? Well, go ahead and think so. You are under the impression that being the ice man in the summer time is a cool job. Nearly everybody thinks so. But you are certainly mistaken: that is, about the man who makes artificial ice. It is anything but a cool, refreshing job. It's hot. In fact making ice is about the hottest job to be found in a hot city at the hot time of the year.
