LOST PARADISE PERFORMERS DINE AT LOCH LOMOND

A Happy Dinner Party With Ceremonies Tomorrow Afternoon Speeches, Music and a Presen-

Those who took part in the I. L. & B. performances, "The Lost Paradise, celebrated the success of their efforts with a dinner and a dance at the Ben Lomond House last night. The young people and chaperons, left King Square in buckboards about 6.30 o'clock and after an enjoyable drive were heartily welcomed by Mrs. Barker. A very tempting dinner had been prepared, and to say that the Thespians did full justice to the good things, would be putting it mildly.

After dinner, D. J. Corr. took the chair and a short toast list was carried out. Those to the King were drank with musical honors. Frank J. Conlon was called upon to respond to the toast of The Lost Paradise, and he did so in a neat speech. The toast to The Ladies was next, and the fair ones found able champions in the good qualities of the women would not fill a newspaper.

Following this the toast to The Irish Litterary and Benevolent Society was drunk, and John O'Regan, former president, responded. He reviewed the history of the organization and expressed the neat the society would undertake to give another theatrical performance in the near durare, and that it would be conducted with as much success as The Lost Paradise.

The next toast was that of The Men, and Miss Susie Murphy and Miss. Gladys Smith displayed their oratorial powers to sood effect in speeches on behalf of the down trodden' ones. The toast to Our Director was responded to the John K. Pauley was given three hearty cheers. The Press was the next toast on the list and brought forth speeches from Leonard A. Conlen and another hearty cheers. The Press was the next toast on the list and brought forth speeches from Leonard A. Conlen and another hearty cheers. LOCAL NEWS

RENFORTH WON.

Two old-time rivals for baseball honors among the suburbanites, namely Rothesay and Renforth, came together last evening at Rothesay in what proved to be a highly exciting match, resulting in a victory for the nine from Renforth. The score is said to have been 3 to 1, but the scorekeeper could not be found at the close of the game, being lost in the darkness, and so there is a doubt. Kinsman and Scott performed for the winners, and Ore and Gallagher for Rothesay.

BOY STRUCK.

A painful accident occurred last evening in Courtenay street, when little Willie Lane, of St. Patrick street, was struck on the Read by a baseball bat in the hands of a larger boy. The youngster was one of a number who were watching a game 12.

ARTILLERY.

Instead of tonight as announced, No. 6 Battery, 3rd N. B. Heavy Brigade C. A., will meet at the main drill hall, Barrack Square, on Friday at 8 p.m., for gun drill.

THIS IS ONE RESULT.

One of the results of closing dumps and having no incinerator is that refuse and garbage are scattered about, in unexpected places. The street department has found it necessary to place a "No Dump" sign at the south end of Canterbury street, between St. James and Brittain, which has been selected as a dumping ground for rubbish.

on the flead by a baseball bat in the hands of a larger boy. The youngster was one of a number who were watching a game of baseball, and before the larger boys could avert the accident, the bat had been swung and struck the little fellow, knocking him down. Thomas Stack carried him to his home at 15 St. Patrick street, and there the services of a physician were required to put seven stitches in the wound.
