PRESENTS BRIGHT PICTURE FOR REAL ESTATE IN ST. JOHN

Letter to Financial Journal in Toronto Dealing With Some History and With Conditions in This City—Outlook Declared Good

Operations of real estate speculators and transactions of a private nature in St. John during the last ten years have disclosed some sharp advances in values.

Among the properties having appreciated greatly because of demand are: The Oak Hall business corner, Germain and King streets, said to be eventually the central offices of the C. P. R.; some Trinity church property on King Square, lately acquired by the Keith interests, New York, for a modern theatre, to be built next spring; "Why?" he asked.

PREPARED

White—"Got all equipments for your care?"

Green—"Yes; an extra tire, an alias, an alibi, and enough cash for bail."
