Charles Kersley, who was arrested at his house on Vining street last Tuesday, where the attic was found believed to have been stolen, pleaded guilty in the police court on Friday. Two charges were heard against him and he was sentenced to three months' imprisonment on each, making six months in all but the sentences running concurrently.

The first charge was stealing curtains, rugs, and other goods, valued at $50, from the home of Rev. A. E. Roberts. The second charge was stealing a num-ber of rolls of wallpaper valued at $17, the property of John Saunders.

George Morphy appeared for accused and put in evidence of character. He said accused had been fourteen years in the British navy, and had an honorable discharge. He had been an in-

Mr. Morphy called George Powell and Harry Bickersdite, who both said they had known Kersley for about three years and had found him industrious and honest. The magistrate, in announcing the sentence, said it was another case of where the innocent wife would be compelled to suffer for the actions of the guilty husband, but that fact could not nterfere with the course of the law. Mr. Morphy had asked for a suspended sentence but His Worship did not think this would meet the case.

Ways and Means of Dealing With Offenders

New Westminster, July 23 .- "I have been thrown out of my rig by automobiles three times already; so far I have escaped without serious damage. Next time I may not be so lucky."

Such was the statement of W. Hatt-Cook at the out-door meeting of the Burnaby board of trade. Residents along the Vancouver-New Westminster road were in the majority and the principal topic to come up for discussion was the danger to life and limb caused by speeding automobiles along this roughfare. The matter was brought up by Mr. Hatt-Cook, who made an inquiry as to whether the Burnaby policeman was supposed to give his whole time to his duties as policeman or not.

"Every time I see him," said he, work of that sort, and the consequence is that the automobilists scorch along the road as they see fit. This is a matter that should be taken up by

In response to Mr. Hatt-Cook's inquiries as to the duties of the municipal police, secretary Coldecott of the board, who is also a member he was supposed to act as guardian of the peace, janitor of the municipal hall, keeper of the lock-up, poundkeeper, and also to any other odd jobs which might require attention around

President Walker of the board was strongly of the opinion that the policeman should be left free to give such and that, if necessary, assistants should be engaged to assist him in putting a stop to the scorching on the interurban road. Mr. Walker stated that the only way to stop the score ing was by relentless prosecution, and that in his opinion enough could be made from fines, before the practice was put a stop to, to pay for the services of such assistants as the policeman might require.
