THE PASSOVER. n this city are actively engaged in preparing for the feast of the Passover, which is the next time of special service and thanksgiving in the Jewish calendar. Orders have been sent to New York for large quantities of unleavened bread which will take flour.

The Passover services begin at six o'clock on the evening of Wednesday, March 30th. Special services, consisting of the reading of that portion of the Bible dealing with the passing of the angel of death and the exodus from Egypt, and songs of praise, will be held in the Jewish synagogue on Wednesday evening and on Thursday. Seven days later, or on the following Wednesday, the passage of the Red Sea will be commemorated by similar services.

The whole week is a time of feasting and joy and is one of the most important festivals in the Jewish calendar,
