SKATING
ET. JOHN TO BE REPRESENTED.

It is possible St. John will be represented by three men in the skating championships in Montreal in February. Fred Logan, who is being trained by Tip O'Neill, will probably be a contestant. Hilton Belyea, who has been on rollers all summer and is now in fine condition, may skate there under the Montreal colors, and Bart East, does not intend to go in any longer races this year, as he says the half mile suits him in a closed rink, and he claims to be as speedy as ever at this distance.

At the Rollaway.

Tonight is "ladies' night" at the Queen's Rollaway. Gentlemen will please observe the usual rules that are in force on "ladies' night" only. The 40 yards race to be run tomorrow night between O'Neill of St. Joseph's and Small of St. Peter's is exciting great interest among their admirers, and no doubt a large delegation of their friends will be present to cheer on their favorites. The medal given by the management to be given to the winner will be placed on exhibition today in the window of Oak Hall. Tomorrow will be on exhibition in J. V. Russell's store, Main street. After the tenth hand there will be a one mile race between Olive and Alward. The public knows that both these boys are fast and it will be a close and exciting race.

CURLING.
OFF FOR AMHERST.

The following gentlemen left for Amherst yesterday to represent the Thistle rink at the bonspiel there: Leonard Barnes, G. J. Milligan, H. C. Olive and C. H. McDonald (skip). Jas. S. Gregory, who was one of the members chosen to take the trip, was unable to go to Amherst, and a substitute was sent in his place. Two rinks from the Carleton club, also left yesterday to take part in the bonspiel: W. O. Dunham, skip; J. M. Belyea, P. W. Wetmore and Rev. G. F. Booth; H. Belyea, skip; J. P. Belyea, J. A. Kindred and E. R. Taylor.

BASKET BALL

In the local basket ball league last night the two best surprises—first the easy manner in which the Algonquins defeated the crack Portland Y. M. A. team, and, second, the large score the Marathons rolled up against the Queen Square quintette. The first game was between the Algonquins and the Portland Y. M. A. team. They lined up as follows: Algonquins, Portland Y.M.A.

DEFENSE.

Finley, Wilson
A. Roberts, H. Thorne
Centre,
Sandy Thorne, Howard

FORWARDS.

R. Roberts, Coram
Chase, McCaw

This was the first appearance of the Algonquins, and as they are a new organization, three of the men playing their first match, it was thought the Portland would have a walk-over. Towards the middle of the first half, when things began to look blue for the Portland, the game became very interesting and remained so throughout. Sandy Thorne, of the Algonquins, was the mainstay of his team, and besides doing fine work, aggressively, helped out his defense when they were hard pressed.

At the end of the game stood 1-4 in favor of the Algonquins. By winning this, their first game, they put new life into the league, as it was thought the Portland would have no difficulty in winning against every other team in the league. But now, with the impetus given by the new association, it looks as though there would be a fight from start to finish for the ownership of the league trophy. The Marathons and Queen Square aggregations lined up as follows:

Marathons. Defense. Queen Square.

Crawford, Stewart
Stubbs, Stewart
Centre,
Rising, Dobson
Pateron, Ritchie
Ledingham, Ferguson

FORWARDS.

This game was throughout in favor of the Marathons, who played much better basket ball than on their first appearance. They had no difficulty in winning from the South Enders by a score of 39-8.

The games were played in the gymnasium of the St. Paul's Sunday school.

WILL NOT DESERT HIM.

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—Kid Herman's fiancée, Miss Matilda Graft, will not desert him in the hour of defeat. "Graft knocked Herman out but Cupid hasn't," she said smiling, to a group of Herman Langfield's (Kid Herman) family. "Herman may be unlucky in the prize ring but he's lucky in love, and I'll stick to him if he loses every fight he engages in. But I'm sure that if he ever meets Gans again the result will be different."

MIKE (TWIN) MAY MEET MELLOYD.

When that carnival of fighting sport comes off on March 17 at Tonopah, in which champions will figure, Boston is likely to have a big attraction in the best boys ever produced in this section will battle and make fame in the mining camps of the West. Mike Mackenzie, of the Casino Club of Tonopah, where the recent Gans-Herman fight to a finish was pulled off, is keeping the wires hot between the Hub and the Nevada mining town completing arrangements for a welterweight championship affair and is seeking an opportunity for a money fight with the holder of the title, Melloyd, the promoter of the title.

JEFF IGNORED HIS CHALLENGE.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Maj. Robert Mackenzie, who challenged Jas. J. Jeffries some time ago to fight for the heavyweight championship of the world, believes that he has scored the championship out of making a match. "My challenge to Mr. Jeffries has not yet been accepted, but I am in earnest in the matter. I am training every day and am impatiently awaiting a message from Jeffries."

THE MAJOR IS NOT TO BE BLAMED

for "anxiously" awaiting a message from the champion. Notwithstanding his imminence, he would stand as much chance against Jeffries as a steam roller would have in a race with a Vanderbilt cut automobile. Mackenzie is 31 years old and is a graduate of Toronto university.

SPRINTING
GEO. CARVELL PRAISED.

(George Tracey, in Montreal Star.)
Mr. Tracey, now manager of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, at Halifax, was one of the greatest amateur half and mile runners Halifax ever produced, and will be remembered as having in the late 'eighties represented his club, the Halifax Wanderers, at the Canadian and United States championships. His record of 2:05 for the half still stands in the Maritime Provinces. In answer to the Star's question as to how he felt about the race, he remembered, he recalled a two hundred and twenty yard foot race in Halifax, about 1888, at the Wanderers' annual games. "It seems that during a cricket tour of the Wanderers, W. A. Henry, of that team, and George Carvell of St. John, N. B., met in the latter city, and Mr. Carvell won. He entered for the Wanderers' Club games, held in Halifax last year, and he and Mr. Henry ran at St. John, the meeting attracted great attention in the two provinces. The Wanderers hoped their representative would regain his prestige, while the St. John Club men felt sure their man would run the hundred, but the twenty-two was the most hair-raising event at the distance I have ever seen and that no account of it, time, 34-48, though it was on a poor track, four and a half laps to the mile, with a nasty turn near the end. Carvell got away finely. There were four starters, the other two being G. Van Buskirk, and the late Alex. Doull. Henry was in No. 1 position on the line, and Carvell was outside, but he went off like a flash, and crossed and went in front of Henry. The latter ran behind until meeting the finish, and then he gained on the leader gradually. It was thought both men would have something up their sleeves for the final effort, but Carvell had not sufficient to keep in front and he and Henry breasted the tape together, the officials declaring it a tie. Great excitement followed, and a run off was proposed, but the St. John man was not disposed to compete again, and the question of superiority remained a mooted one. At that time athletics were new in Halifax, and this fact, coupled with the inter-provincial interest in the meeting of these two athletes, resulted in an immense attendance of spectators, nearly all the best people of Halifax turning out to view the race."

PARSON UNDER GIRL'S SPELL.

She Hypnotized Him and Cannot be Brought to His Senses.

LEXINGTON, Ken., Jan. 14.—The Rev. R. T. Booker, of Scottsville, Ill., who became unconscious while playing a game of hypnotism as laid down in some of the recent publications, is now in a peculiar condition in the dormitory of Kentucky University, where he is a second year student.

Miss Ray McGarvey, the young woman who hypnotized Mr. Booker, is prostrated over the affair. After notifying him according to the instructions in the book she was unable to break the spell, and physicians who have seen him say it is a peculiar case. They declare the trouble was probably brought on by excitement over the game.

Last night about 9:30 a fire broke out in a dwelling house on the Marsh road and as there was no means of extinguishing the flames, the house was soon burned to the ground. The house, which was situated near the old rolling mill, was owned by a few weeks ago by Mrs. Michael McGuigan. The new owner was having the house repaired preparatory to moving into it and carpenters were at work there until yesterday. She feels her loss keenly, as there was no insurance on the building. The origin of the fire is a mystery, as there had been no fire or light of any kind in the place all day. The only explanation that the owner could give was that the chimney was out of order.

CARNIVAL AT THE VIC NEXT WEEK.

There will be band and good ice at Victoria Rink again tonight. While it is hardly safe to boast about the weather, these few days, the conditions for skating are now excellent. A very large party enjoyed it last night and the afternoon crowds of school children are growing in volume daily. Next week it is the intention of the management to hold a grand old-fashioned carnival, so those who delight in taking part in an event of this kind in winter had better get their thinking caps on.

KASIER'S DINNER LIMIT

Effort to Check Luxury of Army Officers
—Champagne Judged by Label.

BERLIN, Jan. 14.—The Kaiser's repeated efforts to repress the sycabanthism of German military officers seems to have had little effect, and His Majesty is credited with having issued fresh orders that they abandon their luxury and simplify their mode of life.

He messed lately with the officers of a smart lancer regiment at Potsdam, who thought they would honor their imperial guest by a sumptuous display of delicacies and wines, including a variety of the costliest French champagnes. His Majesty did not throw a damper on his entertainers by a personal rebuke, but he subsequently issued an order through the Ministry of War that he wished all such luxuries stopped, and directing that when even he was the guest of the officers of any regiment the menu be limited to soup, fish, vegetables, a joint, butter and cheese, with only one single glass of champagne. There must be no liqueurs or other after dinner beverages.

There is a story, however, that the Kaiser, since the order was issued, was the guest of the Grenadier Guards and that he drank with gusto French champagne that was poured from a bottle with a German label. He assured his hosts approvingly that German champagne was quite good enough for anybody, and that it was quite satisfactory to the palate as the French product.

TURKISH SLAVE
TRADE HORROR
Raiders from Tripoli Depopulate Villages
—Girls Sold for $20.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 14.—Advices from Tripoli depict the horrors of the slave trade conducted between Tripoli and the darkest colors. It is openly asserted that it is exclusively a source of supply that the Porte cares to maintain the connection between Tripoli and the hinterland.

In the regions of Nadia, Baghirmi, Gehra and the adjacent countries slave raiding is marked with all the hideous butcheries with which Europe was familiarized twenty years ago. The trade is openly carried on by Arabs and Turks solely for the supply of the Turkish market.

In these raids the adult population is mercilessly butchered, both men and women. Girls in particular and some boys are alone wanted. The miseries they endure in the long march to the Tripolitan coast are said to be indescribable.

Turkish ships make monthly trips and always still be eight with their human cargo. The price of a girl between 8 and 20 is from $20 upward.

A BECOMING FROCK IN SHORT WAIST STYLE.
414—The short waist model is largely used by mothers for fashioning all of the young girl's gowns. The new models for these dresses show a quantity of pleats and one of the kind is sketched. The box-pleats at each side of the front are combined with tucks stitched to yoke depth in front and to the waist in back, while the two are combined in the skirt. The dress is one very attractive in light worsted or serge and needs no adornment to render it nice enough for any kind of wear. If a simple party frock is desired the neck may be cut low in Dutch square outline with elbow sleeves to complete it. Then a soft silk or cloth might serve as material. For the medium size the dress requires 4 1/2 yards of 44-inch goods.
414—Sizes, 13 to 17 years.
