Two old residents of St. John have passed away this week, Mrs. Hammond, in the 86th year of her age, and Mr. Edward Sears, in the 82nd year.
Dr. and Mrs. Baxter, who formerly resided in St.
John, have the sympathy of their many friends in the sad death of their young son, which occurred at Toronto, this week, from the result of an accident, he having been run over by a street car in that city.
I understand an eutertainment of some kind is in contemplation. Some of our charitable young ladies are to undertake it in aid of the funds of our general public hospital. It will take place about October, if not before.
On Friday afternoon, a boating party of young people, chaproned by Mrs. Arthur Calhoun, went from the city to Partridge Island. It included a number of those who were active in the production of the opera Dorothy.
