SHAM FIGHT ON MONDAY

Preparations for the big sham fight to take place at Red Head or thereabouts on Monday, Thanksgiving Day, are proceeding apace, and if the plans of the local militia officers materialize it will be one of the most spectacular affairs pulled off around St.
John for some time, and will show beyond a doubt how well the militia has been trained to defend the city from the assaults of the Germans or any other warlike.

Col. J. A. McAvity will be unprejudiced for the day, and will determine whether the soldiers are shot or not. Captain McAvity, of the permanent company of the 62nd, will have charge of the manoeuvres. All the companies of the Fusiliers are expected to send out men for the fight, and it is hoped the dragons and artillery will be represented, as work in the tactical manoeuvres can be provided for all.

The training school being conducted by the officers and twenty-nine N. C. O.'s are taking the courses and all show great interest in their work.
So far no instructors from the regular forces have been available to teach the classes of the infantry here, but it is hoped that permanent instructors may be sent here later. There is need of training officers and non-coms, as well as of men for a second contin-gent.

The men who are to take part in the sham fight on Monday will assemble at 9.30. Following the battle there will be a lecture on tactics.

MEET NEXT YEAR IN ST. JOHN

Maritime Synod of Presbyterian church selects this city for next meeting place.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 9.—Yesterday's sessions of the Maritime Synod of the Presbyterian church were never to be forgotten by any of those present, notably the evening sederunt, when Dr. Herdridge, Moderator of the General Assembly, and Miss Ratte, Superintendent of the Rescue Work of the church, delivered magnificent addresses, and Principal MacKinnon, amid echoing applause, presented the finest report of Pine Hill College in its whole history, the new professor, Rev. J. M. Shaw, being introduced to the synod on delivering an address, which, while very brief, deeply impressed all who heard it both with the power and the winning simplicity and modesty of the man.

At the afternoon session, Rev. Mr.
Sutherland presented a number of recommendations with respect to the foreign mission work. He read a memorial from the Women's Foreign Missionary Society asking that, in event of amalgamation of funds, the society's constitution and status shall be conserved.

Judge Forbes presented the report on church and manse building fund.
The report of committee on standing committees followed, after which Mr. Hamilton proceeded with his address on the value of leadership, which he was delivering in the morning when time for adjournment came.
He was heard with closest attention as he mentioned instances within his own personal knowledge where the introduction of special methods based on a systematic campaign of inspiration had resulted in largely increased giving to the schemes of the church. It is simply the manner of securing leadership in our congregations and the general adoption of a good method in raising money, said Mr. Hamilton.

At the evening session, Dr. Forrest presented, amid ringing applause, the minute prepared in respect to the war and also an address to the King, the Synod rising spontaneously after the reading of each and joining with inspiring heartiness in the singing of the National Anthem.

The addresses of Dr. Herdridge and Miss Ratte were next in order. Dr.
Herdridge said he had long cherished the dream of visiting the Maritime Synod. It was one of the compensations of his present office that he was able to make this dream a reality.
The cry today from the great captain of man's salvation is "Forward." None were unmindful of the shadow resting over the Empire. It was impossible to wholly shake off the thought of the plague of France. Now that, consistently with her spirit and traditions, England has drawn the sword, she must not put it up until Kaiserism, and all for which it stands, is swept away. We have no quarrel with the Germany of Goethe, but we have a quarrel with a mad autocracy as against a sane democracy. We fight now not alone for our own sake, not alone for our gallant allies, but for the sake of the freedom and civilization of the modern world. There can be but one end of this war. The first cry was "On to Paris," then the whisper, "On to London." The task, he trusted, would be "On to Berlin," a new Berlin, a new liberty. The church may well pray that this cruel strife may soon be over. It seemed to the speaker the great call was greater zeal and faith in the Divine Lord. The great unchanging truths of life are bound to assert themselves. This the church was bound to feel. It is a supreme hour. Omnipotence, not William II., is King over all. Christianity is a fighting religion, notable, aggressive. Christ is not the Christ of epicureans, but the Captain of that host, valiant enough, through evil and through good report, to follow him. First the cross, then the crown. Up guards and at them—at the brutal lust, the manifold evils.
Until Christ is enthroned in the hearts of men, up guards and at them.
Miss Ratte's address was marked by her characteristic power.

Dr. J. W. McMillan made a statement regarding the Home for Girls in Truro, and in which he has taken so active and helpful interest.

Dr. Archibald moved a resolution commending the Home to the interest of the people throughout the Synod, which was unanimously passed.

At this morning's session, St. John was decided upon as the next meeting place of the Synod, in St. Andrew's church.

A Lemon Pie Quirk

When making lemon pies, instead of using cornstarch or flour, grate one potato to each pie, and it will be delicious. The potato tastes much like cocoanut, and the custard is thickened just enough.

ALLEGED POISONING CASE IN ALBERT COUNTY RESUMED

Vial containing substance resembling strychnine found.

Special to The Standard.

Albert, Oct. 8.—The alleged poisoning case was resumed in the police court today. Chief of Police Rieout was the witness of importance.

He testified that on September 14 he, with Constable Arthur Mulligan, went to the shoe-maker shop of Downing, the accused, and made the arrest, that he then searched for letters, that Downing told him there were no letters, but after a search he found a large parcel of letters which Downing admitted were from Mrs.
Johnson, that he asked Downing where the poison was and was told that there was no poison there, that he looked up the shop and house and took the keys with him, and kept them ever since, that he went today with Mrs. Johnson and found a small vial of letters of hers in Downing's shop in a drawer in his shoe-maker's bench and back of the letters in the drawer he found a small vial containing a white powder, resembling strychnine.
The letters and the vial were produced and placed in the hands of the magistrate.

The hearing was adjourned till tomorrow, Friday, at 10 a. m.

After court closed Constable Smith went to Downing's house and declared to Mrs. Johnson her household effects which Downing had taken there.

Sergeant Hickey with two soldiers in uniform arrived at Albert by train last night, forming a military escort, and visited Police Magistrate E. E.
Peck at his office and presented an order for the two Germans confined in the gaol. The magistrate gave the necessary order on the high sheriff this morning the escort proceeded to the gaol and took the two men away to headquarters at St. John.

The Albert Fair opened yesterday and will continue three days.

LAXATIVE FOR OLD PEOPLE—"CASCARETS"

Salts, Calomel, Pills, Act on Bowels Like Pepper Acts in Nostrils.

Get a 10-cent box now.

Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels. And the muscles. So all old people need Cascarets.
One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics.
Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets, and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store.
They work while you sleep.

REV. J. E. SHANKLIN AND MISS KYLE MARRIED AT ALMA YESTERDAY

Alma, N. B., October 8.—A very pretty wedding took place in the Alma Methodist church at 12.30 o'clock p. m. yesterday when the Rev. Thos.
Stebbings of Albert, assisted by the Rev. T. B. Wetmore of Alma, united in marriage Miss Kyle, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Kyle of Alma, and Rev. J. E. Shanklin of St. Martins. The bride was attended by Miss Myrtle Alexander and the groom by his brother, Robert Shanklin.
The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, which was rendered by Miss Grete Connelley of Apohaqui and took their position under an elaborate arch and wedding bell. The bride, who was given away by her father, was beautifully gowned in white crepe de chene, with Princess lace trimmings. She wore a veil and orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of cream roses and maiden hair ferns.
The bridesmaid was dressed in sky blue voile with satin finish and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and matrimony. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the prevailing colors being white and sky blue. The ushers were Messrs. W.
Fenton and Ernest Aikorn.

The bride's travelling suite was massive of gold and hat to match. After the ceremony was over the guests repaired to the home of the bride where a dainty luncheon was served.
The popularity of the young couple was testified to by a large number of beautiful presents. The groom's present to the bride was a gold watch and to the bridesmaid a pendant.
About 3 p. m. the happy couple left by auto for Sussex, thence by rail to some of the beauty spots in Maine and New Brunswick.

They will return about the 17th inst., and soon after will take up the active duties of life in the Methodist parsonage at Kingston, N. B.

Two Ways of Looking at it

"My farewell appearance was an occasion of the greatest enthusiasm," said one prima donna.

"Yes," replied the other. "Isn't it remarkable that such a large number of people should have seemed so delighted to hear you for the last time?"

ENEMY'S PLAN IN FRANCE NEARLY FRUSTRATED

Germans tried to fix wedge between Antwerp and the Allies—More outrages by Kaiser's troops reported.

London, Oct. 9.—The Antwerp correspondent of the Central News under Thursday's date sends the following:

"The German effort towards north France with a view of fixing a wedge between Antwerp and the allies has been nearly destroyed. Fierce fighting is occurring around Lille and south of Ghent.

"Prisoners have been taken to Dun-kirch and Ostend and a German aero-plane has been destroyed."

Paris, Oct. 9.—The suggestion is made in Paris this morning, by some observers, that the Germans are holding out with the idea of taking Antwerp first, and then retiring a line of defence prepared in Belgium, as after not possible for them to find reinforcements to counterbalance the fresh troops constantly coming to strengthen the allies.

Even the fall of Antwerp would scarcely shake French confidence in the success of the efforts of the allies to push the Germans back over the frontier.

Berlin Report.

London, Oct. 9.—The official communication of the German general staff, given out at Berlin last evening says:

"From the western scene of war no facts of decisive importance can be mentioned. Some progress has been made near St. Mihiel and in the Argonnes.

"Before Antwerp, Fort Breendonk was taken and the attack on the inner fort line has begun therewith. The bombardment of the quarter of the city lying behind the line has begun after the declaration of the commander of the stronghold that he took the responsibility.

"The railway hall at Düsseldorf has been hit by a bomb thrown by a hostile aviator. The roof of the hall was pierced and the cover of an airship was seen to rise from the hall.

"In the East the Russian column is marching from Lomza (Russian Poland) and has reached Lyck (in East Prussia) just beyond the frontier and almost directly west from Augustow."

More German Outrages.

Paris, Oct. 9.—The Figaro prints a story of the actions of the Germans when they passed through Luxemburg as told by a refugee from that country who has arrived in Paris. This man says the Germans made the Grand Duchess Adelaide a prisoner and placed her in a castle at Nuremberg. He also declares that the Germans shot the commander and twelve officers of the army of the Grand Duchy and took the 250 men composing it to Germany.

The refugee says that factories and villages were razed and the population left in a starving condition.

Ostend to Fight to Last.

London, Oct. 9.—The communal council of Ostend has passed unanimously a declaration that the town will resist to every sacrifice in order to resist the German advance to the last moment.

Rome, Oct. 9.—A despatch from Petrograd says there have been heavy fighting between German and Austrian prisoners, who accuse each others' generals of responsibility for Russian victories.

German Sunk by German Mine.

Copenhagen, Oct. 9.—A German fishing vessel has been blown up by a German mine laid in the waters north of the coast of Denmark. The captain was killed but the rest of the crew were saved.

German Guns at Dardanelles?

London, Oct. 9.—A despatch to Reuters from Athens says that it is asserted there that German officers have placed forty-two metre guns in the forts in the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus.

Italian War Minister Resigns.

London, Oct. 9.—General Grandi, minister of war in the Italian cabinet, has resigned, according to a Rome despatch to Reuters. The resignation was the result of newspaper criticism concerning the administration of the department.

Australia to Give.

Melbourne, Oct. 9.—At the opening of the federal parliament today, the government announced that parliament would be invited to make Belgium a free gift of half a million dollars in recognition of her sacrifices.

War Long Drawn Out.

Petrograd, via London, Oct. 9.—The Bourse Gazette learns that owing to favourable news from the seat of war subscriptions will be invited for an internal loan of 500,000,000 roubles ($250,000,000) at five per cent. A writer in the Army Gazette estimates that the war with Germany will drag on for a year, because the winter campaign cannot have an intensive character. The fighting will, however, break out again in the spring, he says, with its previous fury.

Isacstein—Ah, yes, madam, here is von of our latest Paris creations.
Mrs. Catterson—Paris? What are those perforations?
"Those are bullet holes."

Police Sergeant Smith gave evidence this morning in the police court in the case against Michael Burns, charged with an attack upon Miss Earle in Douglas avenue. He told of making the arrest and said the prisoner was identified by Miss Earle at the time.
He said Burns had been drinking.
Burns was remanded until Tuesday court that some provision should be made for herself and her five children, as she said they were in want. The magistrate asked her what church she belonged to and said she would have to look to the church for support, the state made no provision for such cases.

guilty, but did not remember anything about it. Policeman Dykeman said he saw the prisoner talking to pedestrians and advised him to go home,
