Tories Taking Advantage of Mr. Tarte's Absence.

Ottawa, Apr 18--In the House today Mr. Sutherland introduced a bill to amend the land titles act of 1894.

The minister of militia stated that the government had taken steps to send Jerseys and underclothing as a gift to the Canadian soldiers in South Africa. The question list which had been reduced to zero, rose to 43 today, of which 21 questions were credited to Mr. Casgrain, none of them of the slightest public

In reply to Dr. Dechene (L'Islet), Hon. Mr. Blair said, in reference to railway subsidies promised by the late government previous to the last general elections, that on the files in the privy council there is a memorandum of subsidies amounting to over $2,000,000. over $8,000,000, but these were not adopted by order-in-council, nor were those of over $2,000,000, which were introduced and placed before parliament during the first session of 1896. With the list of subsidies in the privy council there was a note from Hon. A. R. Dickey, who was then minister of justice to Hon. E. G. Prior, who was the controller of inland revenue. The note was to this effect: "Something like this will do I think. There may be some blanks to fill in with the names of the council company on mileage, regarding which, you also a copy of a printed circular, stating that owing to the obstruction of the opposition at the previous session the question of a subsidy to "The — railway, regarding which you wrote me," had not been considered, but was being taken up by the cabinet. Mr. Blair said that there was also evidence that subsidies had been promised which did not appear on the list, as one of the many letters which had been written by ministers was addressed to Mr. E. E. Spencer ex L. M. A., Frebeen written by ministers was addressed to Mr. E. E. Spencer ex L. M. A., Frelighburg, in regard to the Montreal and

Hon. Mr. Fielding stated that he had hoped to have been able to make a statement today in regard to the negotiations ment today in regard to the negotiations with Trinidad. But some of the communications were of a confidential character and he had not yet obtained permission from the government of Trinidad to use them. When permission was obtained the papers would be brought down.
