POOR DOCUMENT

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH, ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1903.

Around the Town.

the man said "only five cents," and at the

"Oh! it's all right," said the St. John one is all the credit—beat the street railway company recently. True, it was only of a tonsorial badly-and he was in for her four chums, herself and the elderly Shediac. Moreover, he had to catch a compaion; no fear of constables around train that was to leave "the point" in a the house that young woman will adorn short time, and he wanted to be shaved some day if the lord and master will let > course of love's young dream. The pastor of that church ought to feel reasonably > effect could be accomplished to my satisfaction, and for that reason I abandoned the thought long ago.

I have, however, a friend, a prominen from his place of business in a carriage. Here's how five young ladies but to "nought but grief and pain for promised

OBITUARY.

Mrs. John L. B. Steeves, Hillsboro. Mrs. John L B. Steeves, one of the oldest residents of Hillsboro, died on Sunday morning after a lingering diness of paralysis extending over a period of one year. Mrs. Steeves was a devout member of the Baptist church. She is survived by two sons and two daughters. The sons are Frank, of Halifax, and John I., of Hillsboro. The daughters are Mrs. Mariner Smith and Mrs. Colpitts, both of Moncton. Interment took place on Tuesday afternoon at Gray's Island cemetery. Rev. J. B. Gamong conducted the service.

Robert Rennison, Albert Mines

Robert Rennison, Albert Mines.

Robert Rennison, of Albert Mines, died quite suddenly on Sunday morning. Deceased was bround as usual in the morning and suddenly expired before moon. Mr. Rennison was well advanced in years and at one time was the largest man in the county, weighing 300 pounds. At the time of his death he weighed over 250 pounds. He is survived by a grown up family. Those that reside in Albert county are Mrs. Samuel Milton, Mrs. William Milton, Mrs. (Warren Downey and Lorenzo Rennison.

On Monday the death took place at her residence, Erin street, of Mrs. Elizabeth Murray, aged fifty-eight years. She was the daughter of the late John Keefe, and is survived by her husband, Matthew Murray, who carries on a meat business eral service at St. Lawrent on Thursday

Gordon McLeod.

The very many friends of Gordon Sutherland McLcod were shocked Tuesday when they learned that he had died in New York. Deceased was thirty-one years of age, and son of George McLeod, Orange street. About six weeks ago he was taken ill with typhoid fever. Up till last Saturday he was doing well, but unfortunately suffered a relapse, which resulted in his death, which took place Monday night. His mother left here Monday morning, but reached New York too late to see her son alive.

Mrs. Robert Gaskin.

Thursday morning at 4 o'clock Mrs. Catherine Gaskin, widow of Robert Gaskin, died at her home, Kennedy street, Indiantown, after a lingering illness. Mrs. Gaskin was in her eighty-minth year, and had lived in St. John over three score years, coming originally from the north of Ireland. She leaves three sons and one daughter. The sons are Henry, Robert and George, and the daughter is Mrs. Many A., widow of the late James C. Lozan.

Deceased leaves a wife and one child, a father, mother and two brothers. The brothers are George K. and William Mc-terment.

The late Mr. McLeod was a very popu lar young man in this city, and some time before leaving to take up his residence in the States was very prominent in athleti-

Miss Josephine McGowan.

At the residence of her mother, 417 main street, after a lingering illness of about nine months, Josephine, the eldest daughter of Bridget McGowan, widow of the late Edward McGowan, died this morning. Deceased was in her 22nd year and is survived by her mother, two sistems and a phother. Notice of funeral will be given later.

Edward Parker. News was received this week of the drowning late Saturday night of Edward Parker, a well-known resident of Camp-Fleming, of Lower Gagetown, died at his home on Sunday morning. He was 29 years of age and leaves a widowed mother, two brothers and two sisters. This is the second death in the family within two months as the younger brother. Thomas, died on July last. The funeral took place on Tuesday aftermoon under the auspices of the Orange Lodge. The Sons of Temperance also attended in a body, he being a member of both the above societies.

John Fleming, eldest son of Mrs. Jas. when th body was seen on the beach.

Mrs. O. H. Puddington.

Mrs. O. H. Puddington, daughter of Mr. T. E. Puddington, Providence (R.I.), formerly of Windsor, died at Queenstown (N.B.), September 7. of consumption. The deceased, who will be better known as Hattle A. Puddington, left Windsor with the family about 1877, and resided in St. John for some time, afterwards in Portland (Me.), and Dakota. She was about 34 years of age. Her husband survives 34 years of age. Her husband survives her. There are no children.—Hants Jour

Odlege Bridge, N. B., Sept. 22—(Special)—The Rev. A. Roy. C. S. C., of St. Joseph's University, received a telegram from Montreal this afternoon, stating that

On Wednesday Mrs. Anna Hayes, wife of the late James Hayes, died at her resiof the latte James Hayes, died at her residence, 108 Brussels street. She leaves two sons, Edward and Michael, and one daughter, Ellen. Two grandchldren also sur-

WEDDINGS,

Happy Nuptial Events in the City and at Other New Brunswick

Tilley-Richardson.

London, Ont., Sept. 23-The wedding

St. John's Rectory, and L. P. D. Tilley, son of the late Sir Leonard Tilley, took place at St. Paul's Cathedral at 3 o'clock place at St. Paul's Cathedral at 3 o'clock this afternoon, Rt. Rev. Bishop Baldwin, assisted by Rev. Canon Richardson, con-ducted the ceremony. The Cathedral, which was decorated with golden rod and autumn leaves, was growded to the doors. The bride, who looked charming, was in a costume of white liberty satin, with Irish lace, and was given away by her brother, Harold A. Richardson, New York. Mr. Tilley was supported as best man by Fred R. Taylor, of St. John. The ushers were A. Ormsby Graydon, Campbell Beecher, George Gunn and Gordon Richardson, Montreal. The matrons of honor were Mrs. Rhoades, New York, and Mrs. St. A. M. Shinner, St. Lehr. The Mrs. S. A. M. Skinner, St. John. The bridemaids were Misses Beatrice and Helen Richardson, sisters of the bride, and Miss Istabel Howland, Toronto. The maid of honor was Miss H. Richardson. Among the guests were Lady Tilley, mother of the groom; Miss Julia Tilley, Sir Sanford Fleming, Ottawa; Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Timmerman, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Rhoades, New York; Adam Brown, Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. and Miss Austin. Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Perhaps there is hardly a man who has not at some time felt like kicking himself as a reprimend to his foolishness. I have often felt that way, but could never devise a plan by which the desired effect could be accomplished to my satisfication, was held after the wedding, and ception was held after the wedding, and the happy couple left by the C. P. R. for a trip to Toronto and Montreal.

kick had a telling effect for he can hardly (N.B.). The ceremony was performed by walk now, and has to be conveyed to and the Rev. Dr. Barclay, in the presence of a large number of guests. J. Henry Rollinson presided at the organ, and player ley Gordon and Harry Stikeman. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 908 Sher-brooke whreet. This evening Mr. and Mrs. Stead will-leave on their wedding trip.

At 6.15 o'clock Wednesday morning, St. John's Episcopal church was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when John J. Foote, manager of the McCary Manufacturing Company's eastern Canadian interests, was married to Miss Lillian Markests, was married to Miss Lilian Markham, second daughter of Col. Alfred Markham, manager of the Sun Printing Company. Only relatives of the bride and a few friends of the contracting parties were present. Rev. John de Soyres officiated and the bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Helen Frink, while Herbert Beresford supported the groom. Miss Markham was attired in a dark blue traveling suit, with hat of blue plush, trimmed with sheded plumes. She carried a shower bouquet. Miss Frink wore white serge and a picture hat, carrying variegated sweet peas. Mr. and Mrs. Glasby left for Prince Edward Island and the matitime provinces.

SPORTING KYRATS UP A DAI.

Fredericton, Sept. 22—(Special)—The exhibition races at the driving park this afternoon were witnessed by about 1,500 people and were the most successful held turn by way of Upper Canada, where Mr. Foote's home in London (Ont.), will be visited. The bride received very many handsome gifts, including rich silver and gold ware, cut glass, art works and fine china. The McClary Company employes, both in the warehouse and offices, remembered their superintendent handsomebuilding on Chipman's Hill in honor of the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Foote will reside at No. 183 Princess street.

A very pretty wedding took place on Monday evening, Sept. 21, at the residence of Isaac Mercer, Salt Springs, Kings Co., when his daughter, Miss Emma, was united in marriage to Roy Campbell. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Don. Stewart, of St. Martins.

The bridesmaid was Miss Hattie Mercer, sister of the bride, while Mr. Campbell was supported by H. J. Mackenzie.

About eighty guests were present and spent a very enjoyable evening after having partaken of a bountiful supper. The presents were numerous and costly, showing the esteem in which the young people are held by their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will make their home in Campbell's Settlement.

ing, a wedding took place, the contracting parties being Thomas Morrisey and Miss Ann Jesseau, daughter of Chas. Jesseau. Rev. J. J. O'Donovan officiated, and after the ceremony the party drove to the home of the bride's parents, where the wedding breakfast was served. The young couple will reside on St. John street. William Charac was groomsman and Miss Rita groom by his fellow employes in Sleeth & Quinlan's.

Stewart-Bell.

St. Andrew's church was the scene o a very pretty wedding on Wednesday morning, when Miss Georgia H. Bell and one, the groom was supported by his brother, C. T. Stewart, Rev. L. G. Macneill officiating. The church was beautifully trimmed by friends and the choir rendered The Voice That Breathed Q'er

Eden. The bride, who was given away by her brother, William Bell, looked charming in navy blue broadcloth trimmed with gold buttons and white picture hat black plumes carrying a bouquet of cream roses. The bridesmaid, Miss A. Stewart, sister of the groom, looked sweet in seal, blue anglin with cream applicate in pale blue muslin with cream applique and blue silk, white hat black feathers carrying a bouquet of pink carnations. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl pendant and to the bridesmaid a gold enamel buckle.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart left on a honeymoon trip to New York and upon their return will reside at 189 Princess street.

A new feature of this wedding was, in place of throwing rice, as is the usual cus-tom, the friends of the happy couple showered them with tiny slippers and horse shoes made of silver foil. The ushers were E. Girvan and A. McLean.

A quiet wedding took place at the residence of A. McAlary, Victoria street, at 6.30 o'clock Wednesday morning, when Robert McGill, of Sheffield, Sunbury county, and Bessie Balmain, of Douglas county, and Bessie Balmaan, of Douglas Harbor, Queens county, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. David Long, in the presence of a few relatives and friends. The bride received some nice presents. The grown gave the bride a beautiful gold watch and chain. Breakfast being served, Mr. and Mrs. McGill left by steamer May Queen for their future home.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Harry At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Logan. High street, Tuesday evening, Frank Stephenson, of Chipman, Queens county, was united in marriage to Miss Isabella Brown, also of Chipman. The Rev. A. H. Foster officiated. The couple were unattended. They left by the steamer May Queen yesterday morning for Chipman.

Harold T. Van Wart, and Miss Anna.

A. Detwiler, both of Seattle, were married at the residence of Rev. John F.
Damon, in that city, on Tuesday evening,
September I. Mr. and Mrs. Whitfield B.
Van Wart, parents of the groom, and John William Detwiler, father of the bride, were among those present. The groom has many relatives in this city.
His mother, Mrs. Whitfield Van Wart, is a sister of C. B. Allan. a sister of C. B. Allan.

At the home of C. D. Wasson, 23 Adelaide street, early Wednesday morning, Captain Bertus Wasson, of Jemseg, was mar-

The matriage took place at the cathedral on Wednesday of John Litchingham, it Chapel Grove, and Miss Maggie A. Timmons, of Petersville, Queens county. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. W. Meahan, and the bude was supported by her sister, Miss Katie Timmons, while John Timmons acted as best man. The happy couple will reside at Chapel Grove.

Fredericton, Sept. 22—(Special)—The exhibition races at the driving park this afternoon were witnessed by about 1,500 people and were the most successful held there in years. It was the first race meeting since the park came under the new management and augurs well for the success of the sport here in future.

The weather was delightfully fine, the track was in perfect condition and neither drivers or spectators had any cause for complaint.

There were two events, 2.21 and 2.24 classes, and both were hotty contested. Five heats were run off in the 2.21 class and it was a buttle royal between Neilie F. and Fairview Chimes, but the latter came out on top. Sunol Prince acted badly and was withdrawn after the first heat. The Fredericton stallion, Montrose, was also a disappointment.

The St. John horse, Clayson Jr., won the 2.24 class after the Calais mare, Kate Willard, had captured two heats. It was anybody's race until the horses had passed under the ware at the close of the final heat. Considerable money changed hands on the result.

on the result.

The officials were Charles J. Ward, stanter; Senator Thompson, W. S. Jewett, timers; Ora P. King, Hugh Calder and Fairview Chimes, b g, J. M.

Johnson, Calais

Nellie F., b m, W. C. Eaton, St.
Stephen

Bourbon T., br s, Fred Waterson, St. Stephen

Montrose, br g, Harvey McCoy
Fredericton

Time—2.20%, 2.20%, 2.23, 2.7 %,

CASTORIA For Industry and Children.

Striking Excerpts from Evidence of Generals.

LAX METHODS BLAMED.

The Handicaps Under Which the British Labored During the Campaign.

on one special occasion? Was introus at the idea of officers going home before the war was over on private affairs and for political purposes and that sort of thing. I forbade them, I refused them leave, but they went to Lord Roberts, and if they had any family interest they got their leave."—Major-General Brabazon.

"Yes and the second of the second

"What kills officers on service as responsibility."—Lord Roberts.
"During the war I never saw any division or brigade that existed in peace."—Lieut. Colonel Murray.
"After eight months' application—supplication, I may say—to the war office, I have got it changed."—Sir Evelyn Wood.

"As a soldier, it seemed to m "As a soldier, it seemed to me to be madness to go on as we were from week to week, not making preparations for an eventuality which to me seemed a certainty."—Lord Wolseley.

"No one who studies the inception of the late war can fail to see how seriously

Boers at Kimberley Deseived.

"There is no officer in the army knows anything about the art of scouting and attacking except Baden-Powell, who has written a book, and I do not know that he knows anything himself."—Major-General Sir C. Knox.

"The only officers in the army who receive a fair militarry education are engineers and artillerymen. I regard it as a personal affront, being an infantry officer, that any boy who passes through Royal Military Academy, Woolwich, is my acknowledged superior, yet 'such things be."—Lieut.-General Hunter.

"I have seen some staff officers who had really a difficulty in explaining a map, and others, again—and I think those are fewer—could take up a map and explain it intelligently."—Lord Roberts.

Clayson, Jr., b s, S. A. Fowler, St. John ... 4 1 91 1. Kate Willard, b m, J. M. Johnson, Calais. ... 1 3 1 2 2. Doncella, br m, Dr. Gilchrist, Greenwich ... 2 2 2 3 3. Golden Gate, b s, H. J. Flemins, St. John ... 5 4 4 4 Golden Gate, b s., h. J. Frenking
St. John 5 4 4 4 4
Tutrix, b m, E. H. Barter, St.
Stephen. ... 6 6 6 6 5
Minnie M., g m, D. Hanion,
Fredericton ... 3 5 5 5 5
Time—2.22, 2.22¼, 2.21¾, 2.21¾, 2.25.

Bears the Chat H. Flatchers

"What kills officers on service

"The Boers never made any serious attack on Kimberley. Of course, they got tack on Kimberley. Of course, they got our daily paper every day, we know that; it went out at tright, and I used to publish in it information about mines, and cautioning the inhabitants in different parts as to their danger, and things like that; all kinds of tuses to deceive them went out in the paper."—Major-General Kekewich.

General Kekewich.

"The nurses were splendad, self-sacrificing women."—Sir A. Conan Doyle.

"There were three medical attendants to attend 400 sick and wounded on the 24th February (1900)."—Prof. Alexander 24th February (1900)."—Prof. Alexander Orston.

"In my opinion if the sanitary regulations had been attended to properly three-fourths or four-fifths of our losses from typhoid would have been avoided."—Sir Charles Warren.
"No one could say that there is any military hospital in this country which can compare with a large workhouse infirmary, for instance, and that is a fairly low standard of comfort."—Sir Frederick Trevise.

"The only map I could get of any value at all in Natal was the school map off the walls of the schools in the villages that we passed through."—Oolonel Thorn-

"A lot of our mounted infantry were destroyed because the horses would not move. In the case of the Argentine brutes it was little ease than murder to send them."—Major-General Pole-Carew. "I never any such shameful abuse of horseffeth in the whole course of my life as existed throughout the whole of the compaign, and not an attempt was made to deach it."—Major-General Bra-

Lord Chesham.
"Our sword is on infamous sword. it is not worth two-pence—our swords are as blunt as the edge of this table."—Major-

"To a great extent the volunteer force

"All our system of accounting is so com-plicated in peace time that it breaks down in the field."—Sir Fleetwood Wilson. "I think that it is quite conceivable and we pursued after the battle of Elands had we pursued after the bettle of kilands-laagte, and gone on in conjunction with the troops, from Talana, that Ladysmith might not have been shut out."—Lieut.-General Sir J. D. French. "If Ladysmith had fallen I believe all the Dutch in Cape Colony would have risen—the Zulus and everybody else. They would have plumped them for the Boers as their future masters."—Lieut.-General Sir A. Hunter.

"The field imprisonment is degrading.

Sir A. Hunter:

"The field imprisonment is degrading. I saw a man at the time of the Spion Kop affair who was given field imprisonment, and thed to a wagon, and he fainted before he got there. He was a fine man, and an old soldier, but it was the only imprisonment that could be given him, and I made up my mind never to give it to a man again; I did not give it to him personally on that occasion, but I saw

AFTER BIG GAME. Lots of Sport Now in the Forests of New

The provincial papers contain many paragraphs about successful hunters of big game.

Dr. Wilson, of Philadelphia, got a big moose Sept. 17 on the Nepisiquit, in Gloucester county. The antiers had a spread of fifty-seven inches.

Dr. Heiber Bishop, of New York, has sent from New Brunswick to Bangor a moose head with antiers spreading fifty-seven/inches.

William Parry, of Gagetown, shot a moose at Upper Otnabog, Queens county, on Sept. 15. He sold the head to Azar Dingee, of Fort Worth, Texas.

Mr. Doohan, of Rusiagornish, recently shot a deer almost pure white. Albert Mills, of Wassis, shot two deer last week. R. G. Barker, of Burton, also got a deer last week, quite near his home.

A Moneton party are now out in Kent county after moose.

A Bathurst letter to the Newcastle Advocate says: "Nearly every guide obtainable is now employed by the various parties in camp on the rivers and lakes of Gloucester county. We should judge there must be sixteen or seventeen parties in the bush up to date, and still they come from Virginia to Maine and all through the west these parties hall and a jolly good company of sportsmen they are, spending their money freely and being contented to comply fully with the law and regulations governing such sport. A few of these parties do not care for moose functing, preferring bear, and one gentleman, Professor Adamouski, a Polish musical expert, brought out five bear skins last week. Sannel Gamong, ir., the well known hunter, was his guide, while Luke Bouchey and Alec. Prisque wene with Doctor Wilson, referred to above."

Of sport on the Miramichi the Advocate says:—

'The big game season has opened austicable."

A barve mainther of parties are piciously. A large number of parties are already on the grounds and others are looked for later trips. Some of the pardooked for later trips. Some of the parties that are already in the woods have been having rare sport with the bears, which are reported very numerous this year. The following parties have gene in during the last week:—

"H. B. Wallace, Huntington (Pa.), is hunting on the Sevogle with Ed. White as guide.

"Dr. D. J. Brown, of Springfield (Mass.) guided by Jas. Way, is in the Mountain Brook district.

"K. R. Fletcher and J. A. Dupeny, Rochester (N. Y.), with John Wamboldt and Geo. Schultz, are at Guagus Lake, and Geo. Schultz, are at Guagus Lake, Little South West.

"E. Otty, M. Henkels, E. Raffloer of New York, with Guides John Connell and Martin Fox. Hunting grounds, Bartibogue and Tabusintac.

"Dr. Longnecker, New York, is hunting north of Doaktown with Guide Charles Beek.

"Dr. Westover, New York, with Guide Jas. McDonald, is hunting in the Cain's River district.

"Wm. A. Bryenton, of Bryenton, shot first moose of season at Crocker's Lake, rear of Derby, Thursday, Sept. 17. He called, and third time he came out, and was shot; forty inch spread, with fifteen points. Bell was eighteen inches long.

points. Bell was eighteen inches long.
"Mr. Bryenton was accompanied by his brother, David.

"R. H. Armstrong has been absent for nearly two weeks hunting.
"Yesterday some beautiful specimens of

THEY TAKE tes now and again a INHALE CATARI

HON, DR. PUGSLEY WILL INOL

Into D. Mullin's Charge Aga Chief Clark -- Government M

Premier Ilweedie, Hon. A. T. Dunn also Hon. H. A. McKeown returned Wednesday from Fredericton, where there was a meeting of the government.

Dr. Casswell, of Queens county, was theard by the members of the government with reference to some smallpox bills.

The complaint preferred by Daniel Mullin, K. C., against Chief of Police (Clark also came up for consideration. It was referred ito Attorney General Pugsley, to deal with. The attorney general will make out a copy of the complaint and hand it to Chief Clark for reply.

Attorney General Pugsley left Frederictom yesterday for Bangor, where he goes to take special evidence in the Cushing case.

Fredericton today and probably there will be a meeting of the government in this city Friday. The same day there will be a meeting of the asylum commission and on that occasion Premier Tweedie will probably begin the investigation for which proposably begin the investigation for which he was applointed commissioner to inquire into certain complaints.

The government will hold a meeting next Tuesday at Chattham on which occasion they will receive a memorial from the Lumbermen's Association on the proposed increase in stumpage in lumber.

Dr. George Simpson, shortly after he arrived at Gagetown, from Boston this caping from the burning steamer his ankle badly sprained. The do remember this trip to Gagetown of ill luck. He left on Tuesday by the Majestic for his home in Queens County Gazette.

"There's nothing more uncertain horse race," exclaimed the man tendency to talk loud. And the choly friend responded—"You never ed in a weather bureau, did you

Wanted at Onc

Semi - Weekly Telegra dated June 7th and 21st, J 5th and 19th, August 2 16th and 30th, 1902, and 3 January, 1903. One copy each. Kindly mail to To graph Publishing Company soon as possible.

INTERCOLONIAL

Evening

S. KERR & SO

