The inspectors sent out by the m-dical health de-partment to investigate housing con-ditions condemned no less than 400. houses in various parts of the city, and notified the owners to put them in proper condition. The houses con-demned where chiefly situated in the ward and on Eastern avenue and ad-pacent streets. Some were in an in-describably illty condition and unit to accommediate beasts. Sanitary gover-ments at some places were unendur-able.

In most places the owners complied with the orders to put the places in better condition.

if the policy to be followed had to meet the approval of a town council, as though it were as male. On the other hand, a town Council would not assume the r spensibility. For the general policy of a Commission or the good conduct of trusted employes unless it were the supreme authority. Therefore the Coamisions ought to drop the idea that the Council is there merely to fetch and carry for them. In-stead of using the Council as a buffer to ward off trubbe, they should cul-divate more infimate relations with Sivate more infunate relations with the people to the end that full confid-ence belawern public and Commissions may be established. Also, a little more adhesion and cohesion between public bodies would not be amiss.
