

CONTENTS

	PAGE
CHAPTER I
CONCERNING A DECEPTION PRACTISED BY THE PEOPLE OF UPPER CANADA PRIOR TO JULY, 1812—Apparent incapacity for Defence—Efforts of General Simcoe—Militia Acts and their Impotency—Lukewarm House of Assembly—Lack of Military Preparation—Small Regular Force—Flank Companies of Militia—Difficulties in Defending Province—Despondency of Sir George Prevost—Confidence of Americans—Unexpected Result—Opinion of Wellington—Defeat of four American Armies . . .	9
CHAPTER II
THE RAISING OF THE YORKS—Larger Boundaries of the Original County—Varied Population within Present County Limits—Village of York—United Empire Loyalists—French Emigrés—German Settlement—Quakers—American Settlers—Joseph Willcocks—The Flank Companies of York Militia—2nd Regiment Recruited at Burlington—First and Third Regiments—Colonel Cruikshank's Opinion as to Origin of the 12th Regiment—Officers in York Regiments—Graham—Chewitt—Allan—The "Fighting Judges"—McLean—Robinson.	13
CHAPTER III
HOW THE YORK MILITIA WENT WITH BROCK TO DETROIT AND HOW PETER ROBINSON'S RIFLE COMPANY KEPT TRYST—Parade of Militia on Garrison Common—General Hull's Proclamation—Brock's Proclamation—The Mackinac Expedition—Hull's Invasion—How Brock Crossed to Niagara and Back—Brock Calls for Volunteers at York—Officers Selected—Route from Burlington—Visit to Six Nations—Reasons for Water Route—Diary of Voyage—Arrival at Fort Malden—Orders Issued by Brock en route—Brock's Boat runs Aground—Character of Brock and his Volunteers—Results of the Expedition—Arrival of Peter Robinson—Acts as Escort to Brock—Narrow Escape at Buffalo—Arrival at Fort Erie	17
CHAPTER IV
PUSH ON THE YORK VOLUNTEERS—The Frontier Defended by Brock—Critical State of Affairs—Brock's Disposition of Troops—Van Rensselaer's Plan—Attack on Queenston—Cameron Starts for Queenston—Brock Gallops to the Scene of Action—Attempt of Brock to Recover the Heights—"Push on the York Volunteers"—Death of Macdonell—Pickets join Sheaffe's Column—Sheaffe's Dispatch—Effect of Brock's Death	23
CHAPTER V
HOW GENERAL SHEAFFE PUT THE QUIETUS ON THE YORKS—Defensible Condition of York—Description of the Village and its "Fortifications"—Chauncy's Galls—Sheaffe's Duty—Conduct of Defence—Explosion of Magazine and Death of General Pike—Militia Ordered to Treat for Terms—American Sharpness—Names Added after Capitulation Signed—Plucky Interference of Dr. Strachan—Futility of Resistance.	27
CHAPTER VI
THE INGREDIENTS OF SEDITION—Formation of Patrician Class—Land Grabbing—Clergy Reserves—Agitations—Gourlay, Collins and William Lyon Mackenzie—Political Methods of the Day—Family Compact—Attitude of Militia—Higher Officers of the Militia—Mackenzie's Black List—Weakness of the System.	31
CHAPTER VII
THE FOUR THOUSAND MUSKETS AT THE CITY HALL—Two Distinct Periods in Mackenzie Rebellion—What Mackenzie's Revolt Depended on—The Four Thousand Stand of Arms—Character of Sir Francis Head—The Mackenzie Movement takes a Military Direction—Head sends the Regulars to Quebec—Mackenzie's first plan to get the Muskets—The Restlessness of Colonel Fitzgibbon—His Snubs and his Precautions—Mackenzie's Second Plan—Date fixed for December 7th, 1837—Rolph Changes the Date—Outbreak of Rebellion—Jarvis' Picket—Head Dresses Himself—Arrival of McNab from Hamilton—Defeat of Rebels—Where were the Colonels?—Description of the Militia in 1837.	33