

taken down, 8.—And Members in the adjoining rooms are summoned, 9.

R

Reconsideration of a Clause—allowed at any time before the passing of a bill, 46.

Reply in Debate—allowed to a Member who has made a substantive motion, 22.

Reports—By Select Committees, 96, 97.—On Private Bills. See Private Bills.

Royal Instructions—to be printed with the Rules, 115.

Rules of the House—occasionally dispensed with:

— 31st, requiring notice of a special motion.

— 44th, against reading a bill twice the same day.

— 51st, against receiving Petitions, Private Bills or Reports, after a certain day.

— 53rd, requiring certain Notices for Private Bills.

— 57th, requiring a report on all motions for suspending rules on Private Bill Petitions.

— 62nd, requiring a day's notice before consideration of Private Bills by Committees.

S

Salutations—on entering or crossing the Council Chamber, 15.

Saturday—The House does not generally sit on, 12.

Seats—vacated or forfeited by Life Members, 4.

— retained by Members until the Speaker has left the Chair, 14.

— below the Bar, are reserved for Members of the Assembly, 103.

Select Committees—See Committees, Select.

Sharp and taxing Speeches, 18.—See Debates.

Six O'Clock.—The Speaker leaves the Chair at, till half-past seven, 11.

Sitting of the House—time appointed for the daily, 7.

Speaker of the Legislative Council—elected by the House, 1.—Takes the oath, 2.—Reports the Speech from the Throne, 3.—Adjourns