

what I had said to him when I had seen him out on the ranche, and I told him that I should see whether I should see Miss E. or not; so he said that I must have scared them a little; so he told me to go up and give her the paper, which I did, so the whole thing is settled, and I seen that the papers were fixed up all right and signed and the seal put on, and they are satisfied that is this party out here. Mr. Will Gould has written you and told you that he thought that I would not come, but you see that I did, and just as soon as I had got your letter, and My expenses are a little more than you expected. They are between $65 and $70, and if this does not satisfy you, you will, when you write, tell me and I shall put it all down and send it back to you, but I tell you, gentlemen, that this country is not like Canada, so when you write, which I shall expect you to do, as I have not got any more money that I know what to do with. Now, if this does not suit you, you will please to write at once and let me know.

Yours truly,

GEORGE R. ROBINSON,

Beakersfield, Kern County, Cal.

37 Victoria, Chapter 37 D.

In the matter of application of George Branford Cox, of the Town of Goderich, in the County of Huron, Gentleman, for a divorce.

I, Philip Holt, in the Town of Goderich, in the County of Huron, Esquire, do solemnly declare,

That I am the Solicitor of the said George Branford Cox.

That hereto annexed, marked "A," is a letter which I received from one George R. Robinson.

That I well know the said George R. Robinson, and well know his handwriting.

That the said letter is in his handwriting, and that the said George R. Robinson is the same person who makes the declaration of service of the annexed Notice of application for divorce.

That the name, George R. Robinson, subscribed to the said declaration is in the proper handwriting of the said George R. Robinson.

That the place mentioned in the said letter, where service of the said Notice of application for divorce was made on the said Emily Cox, namely, the office of William D. Gould, is in the City of Los Angeles, in the State of California, one of the United States of America, and such service was made at the said City of Los Angeles.

And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, and by virtue of an Act passed in the thirty-seventh year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled: "An Act for the suppression of Voluntary and Extra-judicial Oaths."

Declared before me at the Town of Goderich, in the County of Huron, this 6th day of } February, A. D. 1885.

PHILIP HOLT.

S. MALCOMSON,
A Commissioner, &c.

Ordered, That the same do lie on the Table.

Then the Honorable Mr. Ogilvie moved, seconded by the Honorable Mr. McKay,

That the Petition of George Branford Cox, of the Town of Goderich, in the County of Huron, in the Province of Ontario; praying for the passing of an Act to dissolve his marriage with Emily Cox, be now read and received,

Which being objected to,

The question of concurrence was put thereon, and the same was, on a division, resolved in the affirmative, and

The Petition of George Branford Cox was then read and received.
