

SESSIONAL ORDERS.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

1. That on Mondays and Wednesdays, Notices of Motions be entertained, until the hour of six o'clock, P. M., after which Private Bills on the Paper for the day; then Public Business, that is to say, Bills and Orders of a public nature.

2. That Tuesdays and Fridays be set apart for Government Business; at the termination of which, the House shall be at liberty to proceed upon the Public Business on the paper for the previous day, remaining undisposed of.

3. That on Thursdays, Public Business be first taken up, then Private Business, after which Notices of Motions.

4. That henceforth, upon a Division, the Yeas and Nays shall not be taken down on any question, unless demanded by five members.