 of the institution and perhaps for the assistant as well. The buildings "B" C and "D," which were the Orderly and Guard rooms, Sergeants quarters, and Quartermasters store, might be used for girls' and boys' dormitories and for servants rooms. The building marked "B," used for men's quarters, might be used for school and dining rooms. You will, however, be best able to guide the Dept. in the above matters after carefully inspecting the buildings.
