Ottawa 26th September, 1902.

Sir,

I return herewith the statement of account which has been received from you and which is dated the 1st instant. You should send it to the officer who purchased the goods from you, as the Department knows nothing of the transaction.

On the 30th ultimo, the Department returned an account amounting to 50¢ to you for the above reason. It is thought that it should be unnecessary to write in this way to you monthly.

Your obedient servant.

Secretary.
