Plea on behalf of Gen. Kung, A. - H59727.
by Capt. D. Bainsan, R.C.A.

You will later observe, Sir, when looking through documents relevant to Kung, that his Army record since stationed at his present Reinforcement Unit is not that of a good soldier. The record is bad. It would seem to reflect the activities of a selfish, irresponsible man, whose only thought is the gratification of every impulse.

When giving these documents close inspection, however, you will find a curious fact: For 31 months, when with his Regt, Kung had a clean crime sheet, recorded only by his first offense, which
