

Growth in Selfhood

He is the greatest man who knows
He is a thought of God,
Endowed with leadership to climb
Where man has never trod;

With special gift; with vision clear
Revealed to him alone
Of work enriching human life;
With thought before unknown;

With power to make new flowers bloom
In barren lives, or light
A torch high up the mountain side
To make the path more bright.
