

When I saw life's grandest vision
In my darling's love-lit eye,
And a wondrous light elysian
Shone on river, earth and sky.

Do you wonder, smiling river,
That I came with heart a-glow,
Grateful to the loving Giver
For the light of long ago?
Light whose glory leaves me never,
On the land or on the sea,
Whose revealing power ever
Makes life beautiful to me.