DR. WILSON'S PERSIAN SALVE.

Among the numerous "ills to which flesh is heir" the different DISEASES OF THE SKIN take no contemptible rank. Although they are not generally or often fatal, they produce no small amount of pain, uneasiness, and unsightliness, and therefore call for remedies no less than more fatal diseases.

A long experience in the treatment of these diseases has proved to Dr. Wilson that the difference between them, whether they make their appearance in the shape of PIMPLES, ULCERS, PUSTULES, SCARS, REDNESS or DISCOLOURATION of any kind, are only differences of degree, not of kind, and in fact they are but the outward expression and visible sign of IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD, which impurity not being cast off through the natural excretories, the liver, the kidneys, and the bowels, and being carried by the circulation of the blood into the minute glands of which it is, in great part made up, are there cast off, either by being pushed off in bran-like scales, or if in greater
