

The Library Helps the School

NOW that the holidays are over the children are coming back to the Sabbath School; many teachers are returning. Every effort should be made to create and retain the interest of the pupils. A good Sabbath School Library with the newest and best books will double the interest of the pupils and will also assist the teacher's work.

Some Excellent Books

Among the books which should be in every Sabbath School Library are the following:—

SOWING SEEDS IN DANNY: a story of village and rural life in Manitoba, written by Nellie L. McClung, a Canadian lady whose book has made her famous. A book full of life and fun; of interest to young and old $1.00

ANNE OF GREEN GABLES, by Lucy M. Montgomery: a story of Prince Edward Island. Anne was an orphan girl adopted by an elderly spinster and her brother. Her escapades keep the neighborhood always stirred up. This is one of the best books written for some time $1.50

ADRIFT ON AN ICEPAN: the story of the thrilling escape of Dr. Wilfrid T. Grenfell, whose work among the fishermen of Newfoundland has been most daring, helpful and sympathetic. Told by himself 90 cents

THE PHILLIPS EXETER SERIES. Splendid stories of boy life at school and at play. Natural, inspiring and full of character building examples. $1.25 each. Titles: Following the Ball, Making the Nine, In the Line, With Mask and Mitt, The Great Year, The Yale Cup, A Full-Back Afloat.
