contumenous reprotane scoffing at the holy scripture, or exposing it to contempt or ridicule." "The Christian religion is received as a part of the common law in the United States, as well as in England, and to revile it or its Author is deemed to be blasphemy, and an indictable offense." Burrill. Theologically speaking, blasphemy is essentially evil—malum in sephemy is essentially evil—malum in sealways evil and cannot be otherwise than evil. Its punishment by the Jewish law was death. In Catholic countries it was punished by the civil power as a crime. In Canada blasphemy is a crime as much as it is in England or the United States, consequently, American citizens coming into sequently, each evilve grainst God are sequently, American citizens coming into Canada to speak or lecture against God are canada to speak or lecture against God are committing a crime against the laws of their own country as well as against the laws of Canada, and should be dealt with as criminals. This is clear. It is also clear that no man, or company, or corporation can rightly or legally rent a hall or room to any one to enable him to commit this crime of blasphemy. Our Canadian courts have decided this question. And as no man would speak against God use of your hall or house to hold an audience for what you consider criminal purposes, and which are criminal according to the laws of the land, what right has the blasphemer to complain? Bigotry! intolerance! persecution!—How? Because you will not place your property at the disposal of a criminal, to help him to commit his crime? Singular persecuto commit his crime? Singular persecu-

Seeing that blasphemy is a crime against God and against the laws of the land, the very utmost the blasphemer can claim is to be let alone—this on his own grounds. to be let alone—this on his own grounds. He has no right to our property to help him. He has no right to our press. He has no right to our money. He has no right to our time. Let him carry on his war against God without any help from us. This is not persecution, but common sense. M. Stafford, Pt., Lindsay.

He Society of the Children of Mary is no exception. At the final meeting a very handsome writing desk and an address were presented to the Rev. Father Campeau, Spiritual Directer. The following is the address:—

IMPOSTERS BROUGHT TO GRIEF. THE GREAT "MOVEMENT" COLLAPSES IN A NEW YORK POLICE COURT.

We have not thought it worth while to take any notice of the miserable mummery that has been carried on for some months past by a few charlatans calling themselves Independent Catholics; but an incident in a New York police Court the other day justifies this mention at least. The police court incident is probably the first outward sign of a general break-up of the ridiculous travesty called the Independent Catholic Church. One of the "pastors," who had figured on several oc-'pastors," who had figured on several occasions as "the Rev. Father Powers, ancasions as "the Rev. Father Powers, anex-priest," was brought into court for attempting to extort money from a fellow named Fishblatt, who has been especially active in pushing the "Independent" concern as a sort of moral circus. The alleged ex-priest turned on his accuser in court and let the cat out of the bag with the first place, he had never in his ife been a priest, but had once been a Bap-tist minister. Intemperate habits brought him down in the world, and he was much in need of some sort of employment when in need of some sort of employment when he saw an advertisement from Fishblatt, calling for "Christian workers." He raised money to pay his fare from New Haven, and on arriving in New York he called on Fishblatt and was promptly en-gaged. Fishblatt at once dubbed him "the Rev. Father Powers, an ex-priest." Rev. Father Powers, an ex-priest." "But I have never been a priest," protested the applicant for Christian work. "Oh!" said Fishblatt, "never mind about that. We will call you an ex-priest. It will keep up the exitement. We want half-a-dozen such men as you as ex-priests, you know, to get this thing fairly started."

Powers "preached" for Fishblatt and his gang at several meetings, but finally became disgusted with the company he had and decided to withdraw. He fallen into, and decided to withdraw. He asked Fishblatt for money to pay his way home, and that worthy responded by having him arrested. The judge discharged Powers, but not until the bogus ex-priest had made some rich statements about the Independent Catholic Church. "It is no church," he said, "it is no organization, except an organized system of fraud and corruption. There is not a Catholic in it; but they get plenty of money from people corruption. There is not a Cathone in it; but they get plenty of money from people who don't know what they are." Some of these people are Protestant ministers, and others are prominent Protestant laymen. The money is subscribed to "expose Rome," and the men to do the exposing are miscrable greatures nighted out of the

But it seems they also get money from another class. The ex-Baptist minister, who was arrested, told in court about a sick boy who had promised the Fishblatt gang $5,000. Fishblatt was questioned about this by the judge, and admitted that "a young man who sympathized with the movement" had said he would give them $5,000. When Powers discovered the character of the gang, he went to the young man and advised him to keep his money. This in censed Fishblatt and the imposters engaged with him in "Christian work," and as a matter of course they were ready to gaged with him in "Christian work," and as a matter of course they were ready to fall upon the sham ex-priest and devour him. His last statement to the judge was: "The whole church is this man Fishblatt and a few others, who are making money of anyone foolish enough to be caught in their meshes."

After this expose we should just like to the same tachment emporium of the city. Better facilities for reparing and cheaper rates than ever. Raymond's celebrated machine on sale.

THE BLASPHEMY OF INFIDEL LECTURERS.

Blasphemy, as cognziable by the law of England, is described by Blackstene to be "denying the being or providence of God, contumelious reproaches of our Saviour Seripture, or exposing it to contempt or redicule." "The Christian religion is recived as a part of the common law in the curied States, as well as in England, and to revile it or its Author is deemed to revile it or its Author is deemed to and they must have known that it was and they must have known that it was a part of the common law in the curied States, as well as in England, and they must have known that it was and they must have known that it was and they must have known that it was a part of the common law in the curied States, as well as in England, and they must have known that it was and they must have known that it was a part of the common law in the curied States, as well as in England, and they must have known that it was a money. It was a scandalous thing to do, and they must have known that it was a more content of the content of and they must have known that it was scandalous, but not one voice was raised against it, not one minister had courage to stand up and resist it .- Pilot.

This society has closed its season's labors, and it is gratifying to learn that, apart from the pleasure afforded every true lover of good music and artistic excellence in performance, by the well-selected and accepted programme, the late concert was executed programme, the late concert was a financial success. It realized over $100, thus bringing material aid to the work of alcohing the record of the success. to any one to enable him to commit this crime of blasphemy. Our Canadian courts have decided this question. And as no man would speak against God unless he had an audience, those who form an audience for such blasphemers are guilty participators in their crime. Newspapers also become aiders and abettors of those criminals by advertising or reporting their lectures. It is no palliation of theoffence to say we publish their lecturers but we refute them afterwards. You have no right to help to commit a crime and then try to undo the evil effect of it afterwards. It is not always in your power to do so.

Lecturers against God—scoffers and ridiculers of the sacred scripture—iave no right to complain of persecution and bigotry and intolerance on the part of christians, simply becau e the latter refuse to aid and assist them in carrying on their criminal work. If you refuse to lend the use of your paper to call together an audience, or if you refuse to give the use of your hall or house to hold an audience for what you consider criminal purposes, and which are criminal according to the laws of the land, what right has the laws of the land, what right has the laws of the land, what right has the working so prosperous. The officers of the society that administration of affairs which has made its working so prosperous. From Henry Armstrong, near Woodstock. My Dear Sir,—Your Thermo Electric Vapor Bath, it appears to me has decided advantages over any bath with which I am acquainted. Having made a full trial of it this week, I am now ready to pronounce it a great success. For rheumatism, I consider it unequalled, and I am sure that no one who gives it a fair trial will ever leave dissatisfied. Your Bath stands ahead of anything else I have tried, both as a luxury and a sanitary agent. I take great pleasure in commending them to all similarily affected.
