

their stead, and shall have full power and authority to manage the affairs of the said Society, subject to the bye laws established at the said meeting; provided always, that the said bye laws may be altered and amended at any meeting thereafter to be held, in such manner as two thirds of the members present at such meeting may direct, at least two weeks previous notice of such alteration or amendment having been given.

4. No member of the said Union shall have any power to assign, transfer or set over unto any person or persons whatsoever, any interest which he may have in or claim to the funds or property of the said Union; but the same shall at all times after the passing of this Act be subject to and under the control of the said Union.

5. No property of any kind whatsoever belonging to the said Union shall be subject to payment of debts of any of its members, nor shall the same be liable to be taken in execution by any judgment creditor against any of the members of the said Union.

6. The property of the said Union shall alone be responsible for the debts and engagements of the same.

7. It shall and may be lawful to and for the Treasurer of the said Union, and he is hereby authorized and empowered, from time to time, by and with the consent of the said Union, to be had and testified in such manner as may be directed by the bye laws, rules and regulations of the said Union, to lay out and dispose of all such sums of money as shall at any time be collected, given or paid to and for the beneficial ends, interests and purposes of such Union, as by the exigencies of the said Union may be required, and as may be ordered by the said Union at any regular meeting of the same, with full power to invest any surplus that may remain in any securities, real estate or lands that the said Union may direct, and in the name of the said Union, and from time to time, with such consent and direction as aforesaid, to alter, sell and transfer such securities, real estate and funds respectively.

8. It shall and may be lawful for the said Union to receive from the Treasurer thereof from time to time, in their corporate name, sufficient security by bond, with one or more surety or sureties, or otherwise, as such Union may deem expedient, for the faithful performance of his duty as such,
