To all to whom these Presents shall come.—Greeting:

WHEREAS, some evil-minded and malicious person or persons, unknown, did, on the morning of Friday, the Seventeenth day of April, instant, explode a quantity of Gunpowder under the monument of the late gallant and much-lamented SIR ISAAC BROCK, on Queenston Heights, for the purpose of destroying the Pillar erected by the people of this Province, in honour and grateful admiration of the devoted zeal and heroism in their defence, through which he lost his life, during the late War with the United States. Now KNOW YE, That for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice, the perpetrator or perpetrators of such wickedness and disgraceful Outrage, a Reward of TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY POUNDS, of lawful current Money of this Province, is hereby offered, and will be paid to any person or persons (not being the principal actor or principal actors in the said Outrage), who shall discover, apprehend and prosecute, to conviction, or give such information as shall lead to the discovery, apprehension and conviction, of the person or persons by whom the said offence was perpetrated or committed.

In Testimony Whereof, We have caused these our Letters to be made Patent, and the Great Seal of our said Province to be hereunto affixed.—
