New Lodge of I O. O. F. Held Outing at Mohawk Park.

A very pleasant event was held in Mohawk Park on Saturday when the new lodge of the I.O.O.F., the Mo-hawk, No. 452, held a "Get Acquainted round trip tickets at reduced fares Picnic." It was felt by the officials from all stations in Canada west of that this was a really effective method of bringing the members together in social intercourse. And the idea was tried and found to be splendidly successful. The new lodge with prety little penants upon each member turned out in full force and a fine programme of sports was gone through with, prizes being presented to the winners of each event.
