HOCKEY.

TORONTO, Jan. 27.—It would seem that the Torontos are destined to be the "goats" of the N. H. A. The Ottawa team, after a string of consecutive defeats at home and abroad, came to town Saturday and beat the Torontos at the Arena by 9 to 5. The score by periods was 4 to 0, 6 to 2, and 9 to 5. Ottawa got a big start while Torontos got away slowly. As the game progressed the men from the Capital showed up while the locals appeared to grow stronger and faster, and red, black and white well worn down at the end of the second quarter, but they came on again and outplayed the locals in the final period.

Ottawa's early speed was too much for the Torontos, and in the first period the game was a runaway. With the commencement of the second quarter the Blue Shirts came to life and held their own, while in the final period Ottawa again had much the better of the play. It was a hard, checking game, with not much rough play, but not so interesting to watch as some of the other N. H. A. fixtures at the Arena this season.
