Leaf, spent Sunday with friends here and at Athens.

Miss Lizzie Connel has returned from Uncle Sam's domains, where she has been spending her holidays.

On Wednesday forenoon, Sept. 12, the residence of Mr. T. R. Moles was the scene of a pleasant gathering, when his eldest daughter, Minnie, was united in marriage to Mr. R. J. Austin, of Warburton; the Rev. J. Hagar officiating. Miss Lizzie Moles supported the bride through the trying ordeal, while the groom was ably as supported the bride through the trying ordeal, while the groom was ably assisted by his friend, Mr. W. H. Stanton, of Newboro. The esteem entertained for the young couple was fully manifested by the number of wedding gifts best-wed upon them. After a sumptuous repast and an interval for congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Austin left for Toronto, Niagara Falls, and other western cities by the 1.40 train.

SATURDAY, Sept. 15-The weather has been very dry and we are glad to know that the rain has come at last. It ex-tinguished several bush fires which were raging in this vicinity.

Some sportsmen from Lansdowne visited this place Wednesday. The ducks were numerous and all say they will make another trip.

The farmers here are ditching the Black creek which will prove beneficial to those who have land around it, besides the muck which they spread over the land excels as a fertilizer.

The goods in the halls were shown to better advantage and we be-lieve that, generally speaking, the articles were of a superior quality. The day of bringing old and obsolete specimens in any class is about over, as exhibitors are fast realizing that it must be a superior article that can secure even a third place in the exhibits at this fair. One of the lady judges in our hearing said that she had attended Unionville fair for the past 12 or 15 years and the quality of the exhibits was this year far ahead of any previous year.
