Indigestion or Dyspepsia

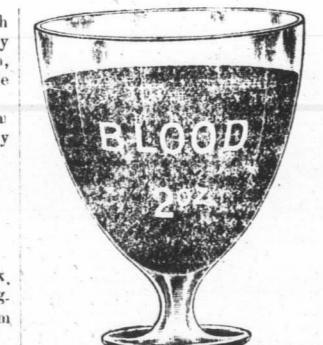

Always become Chronic in Time?

The blood becomes bad and finally weak, pale and diseased. Medicines that HELP dyspepsia only give temporary relief, and do not cure the root of the trouble, which, like all chronic ailments depend upon the state of the blood.

Cure Your Indigestion by Enriching the Blood.

The only Natural Blood-maker is CAPSULOIDS. They contain the Natural Iron extracted from Fresh Bullcock's Blood.

Take ONE or even TWO with each meal three times daily, if you are very bad, and stick to them until the rich, red blood which they make has made your stomach strong and well.

This represents the exact amount of Rich Red Blood added to your blood. Vessels by taking one Capsuloid each meal three times daily.

One of our smart young men, to be cutting out the head of a calf he was killed and put it under his wife's bed, which made quite a commotion when she found it. Most people seem to think it was the wrong head that was under the bed.

We second the Yonge Front correspondent's proposition that some one write from Long Point. We spent our boyhood days there and know good many of the residents 35 years ago, such as Dr. McGhie, Squibb, Perry, the Kelseys, Shanks, and many others. I would like to hear if any of the old residents are alive yet.

A number of small thefts have been committed here lately. Robert Poole has been the greatest sufferer. The mill has been traced to a resident at LaRue's Mills and the goods recovered. The maker has been sent without

His suit for $50,000 damages resulting from his arrest and imprisonment in connection with the Napanee bank robbery. He was not ready to proceed with the case, but the court declined to grant a postponement and the dismissal resulted. It may be that this is part of a prearranged plan for the settlement of the whole matter, but viewed in any other light it looks as if Ponton were being dealt with very harshly.

A New Walk.

A new walk, says the Empire, came in with the new year. It is also a fact. All the girls who aim to be fashionable now carry themselves like trained soldiers. The military walk in the village. Even the little, timid, frail butterflies of fashion, who would be frightened to death at the sound of a cannon, must walk with the military stride of a soldier on the field.

Of big athletic girls take to the new walk much more readily than the girls who never go in for outdoor sports, but both are training the girl of fashion how to carry herself on the street. The girls who are in training must wear stout, and are incidentally gaining chest development and adding strength to their muscles as they learn the military walk. When you see a girl on the avenue with head thrown back, chest expanded, posture erect, and hands hanging close to her sides, you may know she is an exclusive girl young person, for she is the result of the new walk.
