Teapots With Quaint Instructions The following poetic directions for tea making are painted on many of the teapots used in the Celestial empire:
"On a slow fire set a tripod; fill it with clear rain water. Boil it as long as it would be needed to turn fish white and lobster red; throw this upon the deli-cate leaves of choice tea; let it remain as long as the vapor rises in a cloud At your ease drink the pure liquor, which will chase away the five causes

A WELL KNOWN ALBANY MAN Recommends Chamberlain's Colic

Unoiera and Diarrnoea Remedy. About eighteen months ago Mr. W. S. Manning, of Albany, N. "I tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," he says, "and obtained immediate relief. I cheerfully recommend this medicine to those similarly afflicted." Sold by All Druggists.

Slight injuries often disable a man and cause several days' loss of time and, when blood poison develops, sometimes result in the loss of a hand or limb. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is an antiseptic liniment. When applied to cuts, bruises and burns it causes them to heal quickly and without matiration, and prevents any dan-ger of blood poison. A PUZZLER FOR HIM.

An Spisode In the Domestic Life of Mr. and Mrs. Mudley.

"I don't seek your confidence enough, Matilda," said Mr. Mudley, who was experiencing one of his periodical spasms of reform. "Hereafter I want you to consult me about all your little troubles and affairs. I wish to take an interest in everything that interests you. Come to me with your doubts. Confide in me."

"Oh, Henry, how sweet of you!" exclaimed Mrs. Mudley. "I have always wished that we were nearer together that I could consult you and lean upon you, as it were."

"Well, hereafter always come to me," benignly enjoined Mr. Mudley as he opened the evening paper.

A few moments later Mrs. Mudley ventured, "Henry, dear."

"Yes, my love."

"May I ask your opinion about some thing?" "Why, certainly, my dear," said Mr. Mudley, sitting up straight and assuming a judicial cast of countenance

"What is it, my love?"

Took It Calmly

One Sunday recently a lady went into a church in a town to which she was a stranger and asked to be shown to a seat. The sidesman conducted her to a back seat in the gallery, the only other occupant at the time being an old gentleman, who rose to let he pass. It was somewhat dark, and the lady as she shook her skirts and settled down had a horrible suspicion that she was sitting on something be-sides the cushion. She put out her hand and drew forth the sad remains of a silk hat. "Oh," she said to the old gentleman,

"I beg your pardon. I'm so sorry."

The old gentleman looked at the melancholy ruin and replied that it could not be helped.

"Oh, it's truly generous of you to say so," said the lady, "but I'm afraid you're angry."

"Not in the least," said the old gen tleman, straightening out the hat and placing it under the seat." You see it's not my hat. It belongs to Mr. who showed you in!"-Tit-Bits.

Peculiar Highland Remedies. A popular highland remedy for both consumption and general debility was what is known as sudh nan caba ("the juice of deer's horns"). These were gathered in the hills when the animals cast them in the springtime. They were boiled for some hours and the juice thus obtained bottled, after being strained. Candy sugar and whisky are usually added to it nowadays. Crabs' shells pulverized and eaten on bread and butter were used for consumption, asthma and whooping cough in the Hebrides.
