Consul Geo. N. Ifft Will Carry To Germany Many Good Wishes

Mr. Harry A. Conant, United Stat s will come under his jurisdiction, upon Bothweil, Dresden, Highgate, Merthe removal of Mr. Ifft. Mr. Ifft, in lin, Ridgetown, Thamesville, Tilbury a conversation with The Planet this Wallaceburg and Wheatley. morning, said in reference to his approaching departure that he was fusion in this vicinity regarding the proaching departure that he was sorry to leave his many friends who have been more than courteous to him during his residence here. He was sure, however, that the people of Chatham would find in Mr. Conant, of Windsor, a pleasant, courteous and obliging gentleman. Mr. Conant will still reside in Windsor.

will still reside in Windsor.
Regret at Mr. Ifft's removal is universal. During the time he has acced as consular agent here he has made many friends who look forward with disappointment to the time when when they will have to sever their pleasant relations. The post to which Mr. Ifft is going is, however, far more important than the one he has filled here, and he is to be congratulated that he is deemed worthy of handling the business of the United States in such a large centre.

The local office will be closed on the The local office will be closed on the 31st of June, and Mr. Ifft will shortly 31st of June, and Mr. Ifft will shortly after leave for his home in Pocatello for a six weeks' vacation. He expects to sail from New York for Germany about Sept 1. The charge to which he goes includes the cities of Annaberg, where he will make his home, Bucholtz, and Marienburg, Germany. Annaberg is a city of 55,000 people, and does a big export business in dress trimmings. Bucholtz is a paper manufacturing city, and Marienburg is the centre of the toy industry. These cities form one large consulate, and Mr. Ifft's duties will be by no means light. An idea of the increased responsibilities will be gained from the fact that his salbe gained from the fact that his salary has been increased to double its present amount.

Mr. Ifft will carry with him the Raid on Small Gamblers.

Toronto, June 22.—The police suddenly went out with a drag-net yesterday afternoon. They paid their attention to the alleged bucket shops and hand-book men, with the result that some 20 of the layers of odds were landed in No. 1 police station and summonses were issued to about the same number for those who "deal" in stocks. This raid had been planned for the past three weeks. Sixty police and detectives were sent to certain points and
