Christmas in Newfoundland. People have been asking why the Orangemen of Newfoundland hold their walk at this time of the year. For this reason: that now is the only time the Newfoundlanders are all at home; at any other period of the year the men are mostly away to the fisheries. In Newfoundland the old calendar is still in vogue, or ather it is still remembered instmob as ay away to the fisheries. In Newfound-land the old calendar is still in vogue, or rather it is still remembered inasmach as both New Christmas and Old Christmas, Dec. 25 and Jan. 6, are both observed, and the intervaling term day observed, Doc. 25 and Jan. 5, are both observed, and the intervening ten days are one round of festivity, and walks. In the paramose of the island these ten days don't sount. The population of the island is about 200,000, 80,000 of whom are Oatho-likes. Crangeism is said to be rapidly optending among the remaining 120,000 December.

The Silcox Murder.

London, Jan. 3.—The coroner's jury in the Middlemies murder case concluded short investigation, at a late hour last night. The substance of their varilies was that Grant Silorz came to his death from blows inflicted by Albert E. Wrightman, and that Jas. Graham was an accomplice. The prisoners will be held in til the spring assize.

The adjourned meeting of the share-holders of the Ontario & Quebec and Canadian Pacific Railways took place in Toronto, on Tuesday, when the lease of the Ontario & Quebec system to the Canadian Pacific was produced and duty confirmed. The lease is for 999 years, and includes the lines of railway formerly known as the Toronto, Grey, & Bruce and Credit Valley, besides the portion of the Ontario & Quebec now constructed, namely, from Toronto to Smith's Falls.

The Humber Murder.

Very little light has yet been thrown upon the mystery attending the death of Busan Gibbs, by the testimony given at the inquest. The time at which the Susan Gibbs, by the testimony given as the inquest. The time at which the tragedy took place has been pretty well ingrowed down to the sight of Thursday or the morning of Friday before Christmas. Harris has been released on giving sureties to the amount of $2,000, himself in $1,000, and Par. Harris and Thomas Harris each $500. The inquest has been adjourned till the 10th instant. At the inquest Samuel Planket, one of the witnesses, said the conculted a fortune belier in reference to the murder. She said it was a kind of dark man that lived in the neighborhood; as soon as she saw me she knew what was the matter; she said there was a murder and robbery committed; I said when I first went there had been a great tragedy at the Humber, and did not tell her what the tragedy was.
