St. John, N. 95, 597, 507 Pugsley, Minister of Public Works, was to-day elected by acclamation as the St. John City and County representative in the House of Commons. In a short speech the Minister re-ferred to criticisms in the press follow-ing his Fairville remarks regarate cer-tain charges some of the leaders of the Government and its supporters, and criticized Mr. Borden and his speeches for dealing with petty questions and scandals. Mr. Borden, leader of the Opposition, was not taking the part of a man in his great position when he went about the country and charged the Government with all kinds of elec-toral frauds, and let geatleme on the platform with him make charges more reckless than he himself made. In reference to his Fairville remarks

A DOUBLE TRAGEDY. CANADIAN YOUTHS MURDERED AS

THE RESULT OF A QUARREL.

Two Brothers Are Slain While Hunting in the Woods on New Brunswick's Border.

Woodstock, N. B., Sept. 18 .- A double murder, in which two boys were shot by a boy companion while hunt-ing in the woods, took place on Tuesday afternoon in the woods on the Maine border. The boys all lived in this vicinity, and are sons of respectable this vicinity, and are sons of respectable farmers. Guy and Oscar Downing, brothers, were shot by Guy Tardia, who was with his cousin, Fred. Tardia. As near as could be an even of the particulars are as follows: The two parties met in the woods three or four times, and each time the quarrels between them grew worse. The dispute was as to the right of each party to hunt in the woods near each other's houses. Fin-ally, Guy Downing stood his rifle against the fence and ordered Fred. Tardis to do the same. The former then went up to the latter and seized him by the collar. Oscar Downing started towards Guy Tardis, who fired his gun, the bullet piercing Downing's hung and coming out at the shulder blade. He discond distantly. Guy Downing then ran, when Guy Tardis fired at him, striking him on the top of the head, the bullet plowing its way through his brain and killing him instantly also. The Tardis bors were arrested and

FINNISH PILOT ACCUSED OF CAST-ING AWAY STANDART.

Court Party at St. Petersburg Say The the Intention Was to Destroy the Imperial Family-Vessel a Total Wreck.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 18.—The Im-perial yacht Standart is a total loss. She went ashore in such a position that needle-shaped rocks lie ahead and astern, and there is no hope of re-leasing her. The Reactionists, taking divantage of the recent grounding of the Standart, with the Imperial family on board, have opened a bitter cam-paign, demanding the punishment of Finland for the mishap. The Znamya, in a long ultra-loyalist article, says that it has learned that the navigation of that part of the arch-ipelago where the yacht went ashore is so dangerous that Finighs teamers are forbidden to eater it, and the paper asks why his Majesty was not informed of the peril, and why the pilot steamed al-most at full speed, in a vessel drawing much water, into such a dangerous boal-ity. The paper adds: "Thouga the thought is too terrible to entertain, yet there is no doubt that the grounding of the Standart was pre-meditated, and that only Providence foiled the despicable purposes of the Finns. It is appelling to think of what St. Petersburg, Sept. 18 .- The Im-

DIAMOND CRISIS SETTLED.

Pooling Agreement Effected Between Two Leading Companies.

Two Leading Companies. London, Sept. 18.—The great crisis in the diamond trade has been settled by a pooling agreement between the De Beers and Premier Diamond Compan--ies. The details have not been made public, but the selling agency will be maintained, and will deal in the pro-ducts of both mines on a basis to which the Transval Government, as the chief factor in the Premier Company, has consented. It follows that the prices of diamonds probably will be fully main-

The display windows only offer a sugges-tion of what may be seen inside, and it is a well known fact that there are no better dressed windows in the city. The writer found great difficulty mak-ing his way through the immense crowds interviewing the different buyers of each department, and must say that they are very enthusianstic over their work, and take a decidedly keen interest in the firm's welfare. The whole store presents a gav appearance. The aisles are like a gay appearance. The aisles are like lanes in a vineyard, large clusters of argapes hanging promisciously on each side. Electric lights intertwined among the vines add a brilliancy in keeping with the firm's usual decorations, and make a novel and beautiful sight.

Waist Section. The waist department on the third floor is one of the magnificent attrac-tions of this store. So large was the showing of beautiful Paris waists to-day that everyone was satonished at the grand display. Among many of the handsome waists that attracted great attention was a pale blue mousseline, yoke with French Valenciennes lace yoke with face epaulettes. This lace ef-fect is continued down the front, with cluster of lace medallions on the side, trimmed sleeves with fancy lace cuff. Another of the great attractions was a fancy white net over white silk slip, made with tucked yoke with hand em-bridered insertion, forming a bolero ef-fect; the same effect is carried out in the back; tucked sleeve with lace collar an cuffs.
