Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

by the young women themselves is very encouraging.

A new feature of this year's work is the entrance class, composed at present of four. Miss Anna Smkh has this department in charge. Others are seeking instruction in more elementary branches.

The weekly social gathering and the Sunday meetings give promise of being of real help, especially to young women who are strangers in the city. The young ladies in the Boarding Home have shown their appreciation of the Association in a very practical way this year. For some time past they have been meeting weekly to make articles for the coming bazaar. The extreme difficulty to be encountered by young women in securing a comfortable boarding house, increases their interest in seeing the Hamilton Association in a position to meet this need.

WINS FOOT RACE

Lucknow Has Some Aged People, One is a Hundred and Five.

a Hundred and Five.

Lucknow, Oct. 23. — One of the most popular events at the Lucknow fair was the winning of the old man's race by John Adams. Mr. Adams is over 80 years of age, a pioneer, and a character of more than local repute.

He is one evidence of the claim that of the early settlers only the fittest survived. We have many others. Sometime ago a number of old ladies, formerly of Ashfield and Huron townships, had a social gathering in Detroit, and over a cup of tea were discussing in Gaelie the ages of come of our residents.

Mr. Peter Murray, Kenneth Hunter, Allan McKenzie and one lady ventured the opinion that big Duncan McRae was the oldest. "Hoot!" exclaimed another lady; "he is young yet; he is only 95 and "Sailor" McKay's father in Lucknow is 105."

Storekeeper Arrested for Kissing Pretty Customer.

Buffalo, Oct. 24.-It was only

Buffalo, Oct. 24.—It was only a kiss, but it came affectionately from the lips of a son of Sunny Italy. It was planted right on the lips of Bertha Goodenwandon, young and pretty, who lives at 965 William street.

Miss Goodenwandon does not believe in osculation. She thinks that it is against the rules of health, especially when the principals are not acquainted. And that is why Detective Zimmerman placed Joseph G. Labello, 36 years old, of 163 Main street, under arrest yesterday afternoon, on the charge of assault.

Miss Goodenwandon entered his store, she says, and purchased some fruit. She says he rushed from behind the counter, called her a sweet little girl, and kissed her.

"We had not an unpleasant trip, but one which, of course, was disappointing. We regret, naturally, that the chief honor in the balloon race should have been carried off by the representatives of a foreign Government, but they are entitled to all there is in their achievement. I want to say that Major Hersey is one of the most expert balloonists in this country, and, under more advantageous conditions, I believe he would have piloted his balloon to victory. We made splendid progress and we would have continued had we understood the atmospheric conditions and "We had not an unpleasant trip but stood the atmospheric conditions had not our ballast run short. As it was, we traveled 200 miles further than the distance which was covered by the same balloon piloted by Major Hersey a vear ago when he won the Gordon Bennett cup at Paris. "I believe the race will be productive of good results," said Mr. Atherholt in conclusion, "because it will stimulate further effort and experiment in ballooning. This country is without doubt the best in which to hold these experimental tests, because with a balloon may extent of space to which a balloon may travel. In Europe the conditions are the reverse, the space being confined within limits which are vastly inferior

After Being on Top of a Pole Three Days.

Wheat, white, bush. 100 to 100 peas and object of pity for several days, perched on the cross arms of an electric light pole in an alley below Wilson street, at the considerable trouble. On Sunday the cat went up the pole when hard pressed by a dog, and never stopped going until it reached the top. It set on the cross arms for three days and three nights. On Tuesday some of the neighbors took pity on it. The Board of Health was also notified. Mr. Nichol, when notified, called the Cataract Company's attention to it, and was promised that a man would be sent down. When the officer found that the cate was still there he went down with a long laider and a pole to rescue the unfortunate animal. Just as he was about to reach for it the eat made a flying-loap to the ground and went down the alley like a streak of lightning.

Mr. Nichol says there are a great many people in Hamilton who take cats to the Beach in the summer, and leave them there to starve when moving back to the city. Two or three such cases have already come under his notice, and he is making an effort to find the names of the people responsible. If he is successful he says he will prosecute them in the Police Court.

Pittsburg, Oct. 24.-Oil opened $1.78.

COBALT NOTES Mr. James L. Landrus, who owns some claims in James Township, reports good finds of nicelite and silver in that section. He says that the township will become a good camp. One mine is now bagging ore and it will start shipments by January 1st.

Pittsburg Restless.

Mr. Ewan Mackenzie, Toronto, has received word of a find on four claims of the Clark-Cobait Company, near Nicolite Lake in the Temagami Reserve. The ore contains native silver averaging 5,155 ounces to the ton.

L. H. Speer & Company, Toronto, have received a letter from Mr. M. Crawford, who is at Englehurst, of a rich strike made at the bottom of No. 1 shaft of the Crawford Mine. The ore was found to contain visible or free gold, the first indications thereof which have been reported. The shaft is 40 feet deep.
