

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

F. J. O'Connell, Esq., is seriously ill.

THE Northern Light arrived yesterday from Victoria.

CRV surgeons will please notify us of the non-delivery of their papers.

THE Herald will hereafter be on sale by the News Agents on the line of Railway. Price two cents.

THE Montreal arrived from Montreal on Friday last, and after landing freight, proceeded to Pictou.

THE irascible Will Robertson, representing Daniel & Boyd of St. John, is doing the Island.

THE new Convent at Summerside was blessed by His Lordship Bishop McIntyre last Wednesday morning.

WE desire to extend our hearty congratulations to Mr. James McAra on the occasion of his latest departure.

THE M. A. Starr arrived from Halifax last Thursday and called again on Friday. She will make fortnightly trips to Murray Harbor during the season.

WILLIAM DODD, Esq., and Mrs. Dodd arrived home last Wednesday from California, where they had been spending the winter, looking well and hearty.

W. R. WATSON'S advertisement for Scotch, Patent, Smokers' Supplies, Croon & Blackwell's Goods, received too late for insertion to-day, will appear next week.

HIS GRACE THE ARCHBISHOP OF HALIFAX, accompanied by His Lordship the Bishop of Chatham, arrived in the city on Monday evening. They purpose remaining a few days.

MR. JAMES JACOB, General Agent for Morris & Ireland's celebrated safe, is again on the Island, and meeting with good success. The safe from this firm have given the best satisfaction.

MR. PATRICK McELMEE, who has been attending Laval University for the past two years, returned home some few days ago, looking exceedingly well. He intends passing his vacation among his friends on the Island.

SOME humane individuals, acting on our suggestion, has erected a very prominent danger signal on Upper Great George Street. We are advised more than ever to be on our guard, as the signal is a very valuable one.

MR. FAYNES DOYLE'S congregation in Summerside intend having a grand picnic to Cape Traverse on the 7th of July, in aid of their Church and Convent. Special trains will run from all points on the line. Further particulars next week. Please make no engagements for 7th July.

THE following paragraph, taken from the Montreal Star, will be interesting to some of our readers: "On Monday Mr. E. Bellamy, the widowed Inspector of Island Revenue, was married to Mademoiselle Normandin, widow of the late Alfred Normandin of this city, by the Rev. Abbe Rousselot, at St. James' Church."

THE Examiner has learned of the death of Captain John R. McDonald, of Bouris, which event occurred on the Virginia coast on the 25th April last. He belonged to the crew of the schooner Neptune, and lost his life with three others. He leaves a widow and three small children resident in East Boston.

"SEEMING BELIEVING," and as our country patrons would not believe one-tenth of what we could write of the beauties of Weeks & Co's new store on Queen Square, if they would satisfy their minds they should call and see for themselves. A gentleman remarked to us to-day, "It is equal to me to be found this side of Boston," and we believe him.

THE steamer Clifton, of the line advertised by Mr. Newbery in another column, arrived here yesterday morning from London with crockery and stoneware, the latter being for the Miramichi Valley Railway. She cleared for Miramichi in the afternoon, and will return here about the 25th inst., on her homeward trip to London. She has first-class passenger accommodation and extensive freight room, and we sincerely hope that Mr. Newbery's enterprise, which secured so fine a boat on this route, may be handsomely rewarded, and that shippers will freely patronize her.

"A. C. BERTMAN, proprietor of the North Sydney meat and provision business establishment was recently destroyed by fire, has returned to the city from Boston. His many friends in the gallery regret to learn that his loss will reach several thousand dollars, notwithstanding the fact that he had an insurance of nearly two thousand dollars on the property. Mr. Bertman, with commendable enterprise, has purchased a new plant, and expects by the 15th of June to continue the publication of the Standard in a new and enlarged form. He has our best wishes for an uninterrupted period of phenomenal prosperity."

MR. BERTMAN is an Islander, and brother of the late Joseph Bertman, founder of the Summerside Journal.

SOME commensurate anecdotal, at present unknown, has succeeded in pinning off on us two bogus death notices, and one bogus marriage notice, which appeared in last week's Herald. They are those announcing the death of Mrs. James McCormack and Angus McCallan and the marriage of Mr. Christopher McCormack, all of Narrows Quok. The latter enclosing those notices, which was signed "J. & McDonald," we have forwarded to one of the parties aggrieved, and who shrewdly trusts that the bogus notices, which were really of a matrimonial nature, may be discovered, and rewarded as richly deserved.

WE are sorry to hear that Mr. W. H. Conant has been superceded in the U. S. Consulate for this Island, and that Mr. H. M. Kalm, of Pennsylvania, has been appointed to relieve him. Mr. W. H. Conant has succeeded in making himself as home among us, and we much regret that the pleasant relations which existed between him and our people are to be disturbed. It cannot be expected that under present circumstances, he will receive other employment in the Government service; but we believe we value the services of all those who have made St. John's a more pleasant and healthy place to live in, and we hope that he will take up his residence here.

Card of Thanks.

THE undersigned desires to express his sincere thanks to the Sisters of the Charlotvetown Hospital, and the Doctors, for their care and attention; as also to the citizens who have shown him so much kindness during his stay in the Hospital.

ALBERT GLIDDEN, Jr., Charlotvetown, May 20, 1885.

Important to Farmers.

Facts about Hazard's Improved Turnip Seed.

ABOUT the year 1874, Mr. Arthur D. Hazard imported a small lot of a new variety of turnip seed, which he called "Hazard's Improved," and which he sold at a high price. It was a superior variety, and he had a large quantity of it on hand. He was very successful in his business, and he was very popular among the farmers. He was very kind to his customers, and he was very generous to his neighbors. He was very honest, and he was very fair. He was very brave, and he was very strong. He was very wise, and he was very good. He was very kind, and he was very generous. He was very honest, and he was very fair. He was very brave, and he was very strong.
